

selected to oppose the resolution, but other Thompson leaders said that this task had been delegated to Ald. Anderson.

ENGINEERS GO BACK ON JOBS

Restoration of the seven indicted school engineers to their jobs came after a windy debate at the board of education session. During the discussion Michael Ahearn of counsel for the men pointed out that some of the trustees themselves were not above reproach in the criminal annals of the county.

He said that only two of the engineers, Charles E. Driscoll and James Spain, had been found guilty of contempt of court and that their crime was no greater than that of some of the members who have served jail sentences for the same offense.

"You mean to come here with personalities like that," yelled Trustee Hart Hanson, appealing to Dr. John Dill Robertson, who, with Hanson, was opposed to reinstating the men. "This man is out of order. What we need is more common sense and fewer law-yeas."

Francis X. Busch, another attorney for the engineers, contradicted reports from Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley that the men would be given a speedy trial.

Go Back to Work Today.

The engineers who will return to work this morning, in addition to Spain and Driscoll, are James D. Doherty, Arthur McCracken, George McKensie, John L. O'Brien, and Frank Martin.

Trustees Severinghaus, Davis, Dr. Adair, and Mrs. Struwing, all indicted; Mrs. Johanna Grex, and Dr. Boleslaus Karkowski, also indicted; and Trustee appointees, voted the men back. Opposing the motion were Dr. Robertson, Hart Hanson, and J. Lewis Coath. Francis E. Crankin was present but refused to vote.

Trustee Coath explained he sympathized with the engineers, who, he said, were "victims of circumstances" and not the real grafters, but would vote against them because "this thing is nothing but a frameup and camouflage as the first step to getting the whole gang of indicted employees back on the payroll."

VOTES TO AUDIT BOOKS

The board, contrary to the expectations of many spectators, including Mayor Lacy Fage Gaston, representatives of the City club, and other civic organizations, passed unanimously an appropriation of $20,000 to defray expenses of auditing its accounts and books for the period of the recent scandal.

The resolution authorizes Dr. Robertson to submit the names of five established auditing concerns to authorities investigating the school board and to employ one of the firms which will be acceptable to those authorities.

Despite this step, however, the city council unanimously voted to direct Chairman Robert of the council finance committee to enter into a contract with an auditing firm to make an entirely separate audit.

"This audit may not be necessary, but if it is, we will be ready to push it through with all the backing the city treasury can give it," Ald. Richard said.

SUPREME COURT JUDGES DIVIDED ON BASIC LAW

4 Favor Constitution and 3 Oppose It.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The Illinois Supreme court is a divided bench on the proposed new Illinois constitution.

There are "for ratification" among the six downstate justices: Justice Clyde E. Stone, Peoria, Republican.

Justice Frank E. Dunn, Charleston, Republican.

Justice Warren W. Duncan, Marion, Republican.

Chief Justice Floyd E. Thompson, Rock Island, Democrat.

Justice James M. Cartwright, Oregon, Republican.

Justice William M. Farmer, Vandalia, Democrat.

Justice Carter, the Chicago member, is already on record as favoring the new constitution.

Views Given by Judges:

In replies made today to inquiries from this Chicago Tribune, the Supreme court justices gave the following replies:

JUSTICE FLOYD E. THOMPSON, Rock Island.—The older a constitution is, the more useful it is, so long as it serves the people well. When it comes to changing a constitution, federal or state, I am a conservative and must be convinced the change is, on the whole, good before I will advocate it. There are many provisions in the proposed new constitution that I like but there are others I cannot endorse. To date I am not convinced our present constitution ought to be scrapped.

JUSTICE WILLIAM M. FARMER, Vandalia.—I am unalterably opposed to the ratification of the proposed new constitution for many reasons, which are too lengthy to set out now, but which I expect to make known to my neighbors and friends in a short time. If the constitution should be ratified, I am confident that a new constitutional convention would have to be called within a very brief time to cure the defects in the pending document.

JUSTICE JAMES M. CARTWRIGHT, Oregon.—I am opposed to the ratification of the proposed new constitution. My reasons are many and should be stated at length to express fairly my opposition.

JUSTICE CLYDE E. STONE, Peoria.—Though I do not approve all of the provisions of the proposed constitution, I consider it, on the whole, more adequate to our needs than the present one and shall vote for its adoption.

JUSTICE WARREN W. DUNCAN, Marion.—Personally I am in favor of the new constitution, but I am not actively advocating it and will not use my influence to get any one to vote for it for the reason that a rule of the Supreme court forbids justices from engaging in political issue or partisan questions. If I were a private citizen I would work for it.

Like Limitation Clause.

Justice Frank E. Dunn, Charleston, made an extensive reply in which he said:

"I favor the adoption of the proposed new constitution for various reasons."

"1. The reduction of the representa-

ANDRE TRIDON.

New York, Nov. 22.—A few hours after dictating to his wife a statement for the press that there was no hope for his recovery, Andre Tridon, a theorist of psycho-analysis, died tonight. He lapsed into a coma shortly after predicting his end. tion of Cook county in the legislature. The principle that small areas of territory having a large population should be limited to prevent their domination of the states in which they exist is fair and has been recognized in various states. New York and Baltimore are limited in their representation and the legislatures of their states and of many other states have provisions limiting the representation of small territories with large population in the legislature.

Makes for Economy.

"2. The change from minority representation to the election of single representatives in legislative districts. The change of legislative procedure in regard to appropriation bills limiting conference committee reports on appropriation bills to subject matter directly relating to matters of difference between the two houses and prohibiting the passage of any appropriation bill or the consideration of any conference committee report on appropriation bills, unless the bill or report has been printed in its final form and placed on the desk of members at least three legislative days prior to the final passage of the bill, or the consideration of the report. This ought to make for economy and better considered legislation.

4. The prohibition of any person elected to the general assembly receiving or holding any lucrative civil appointment during the time for which he is elected.

5. The election of a county assessor.

Taxation Is Unfair.

"6. The change in the revenue article authorizing the legislature to provide for an income tax. Our present system of taxation by valuation has long been generally recognized as unfair and oppressive in the distribution of broadness of taxation and has resulted in visible, tangible property paying a very largely excessive part of the taxes, while the invisible, intangible property escapes with only a small part.

"The proposed constitution places in the hands of the legislature the power to correct this injustice."

"7. The proposed constitution facilitates somewhat the adoption of amendments."

"8. The judiciary article provides a more efficient system of administration of justice than now exists in any state within my knowledge."

MERRIAM HOLDS BASIC LAW TAX SCHEME UNSOUND

Voices His Objection to New Constitution.

Charles E. Merriam, professor of political science (including the subject of municipal finance) in the University of Chicago, sets forth in the following statement his opposition to the proposed new state constitution, dealing especially with the revenue and finance sections.

Prof. Merriam was for years older man from the Seventh ward and a member of the council finance committee. He made the report for the City club on municipal revenues of Chicago in 1905, was chairman of the charter convention committee on taxation and revenue, was appointed by Gov. Deneen a member of the special state tax commission, of which John P. Wilson was chairman, and was chairman of the commission on city expenditures.

Calls Principles Unsound.

"The revenue and finance sections of the proposed constitution," says Mr. Merriam, "are open to very grave objections both as to form and to substance. It is apologetically said in behalf of these sections that their purpose was to provide an improvement over the present tax system and that 'on the whole' a slight gain has been made. Careful examination of the proposed sections shows, however, that the situation is made worse by the introduction of unsound principles and methods of taxation. Taxpayers might well study these new sections with a very great care, for they are of far reaching significance."

"The proposed constitution authorizes two income taxes in addition to the federal tax now in force. If the provisions of these sections are carried out three income tax schedules must be made out by those already struggling with the one we have."

Three Income Taxes.

"Section 142 provides for an income tax in place of the tax on intangible personal property, while section 143 provides for another income tax imposed upon all net incomes. We would then have (1) the federal income tax, (2) the income tax in lieu of the tax on intangible personal property, and (3) the income tax on all incomes."

"If the peculiar system of exemptions and deductions is closely examined, which limitation of space forbids here, it will be found that provision is made for a very complex and confusing system of taxation. There are few taxpayers who can look calmly upon the prospect of struggling through the intricacies of three systems of income tax schedules and three systems of exemptions and deductions."

Instead of simplifying the present system it is made more complicated and more difficult to administer.

Taxes on Small Incomes.

"An entirely unsound feature of the proposed general income tax is the requirement, which is made obligatory upon the legislature, that incomes above $500 shall be subject to taxation. This is a very grave mistake. In the federal law the exemption is $2,000. This proposed constitution would require every clerk, stenographer, laborer, and farmer in the state to file an income tax schedule and to pay an income tax."

"The practical administration of such a tax would cause endless inconvenience and difficulty throughout the state. As a matter of justice, the figure of $500 is far below any fair standard. The state of Illinois should not endeavor to impose additional burdens on those whose incomes are below a living wage, and who already pay indirect taxes far beyond their strength to carry."

Theory of Income Taxes.

"Modern income taxes are constructed on the theory that men should be taxed in proportion to their ability to pay, and that ability to pay is measured by income. For this reason the rate of tax advances with the size of the income, and the larger income pays the larger rate. The justice of this cannot be successfully challenged."

"One of the serious defects of the proposed constitution is that this commonly accepted principle is violated. In the case of the income tax imposed in place of the personality tax there is no progression whatever, but an absolutely flat rate for incomes of all sizes from $100 to $1,000,000. In the case of the second or net income tax, the highest rate cannot be greater than three times the lowest rate."

In other words, the man with the income of $1,000,000 cannot pay more than three times the rate fixed for the man with the income of $500. In order to protect the man with the $500 income, it will be necessary to make an extremely low rate, and three times this low rate will be the highest rate.

"Or, putting it plainly, this shifts the burden of the tax from the larger incomes to the smaller. It turns the income tax upside down."

Points to Complexity.

"Instead of a simple grant of power to the legislature and simple types of restrictions desired, the revenue clauses are involved and at times almost incomprehensible. They constitute anything but a clear and adequate set of fundamental principles appropriate to a new constitution."

In a state statute wrong principles or improper drafting may be avoided by repeal or change of the laws, but in a constitution as difficult to amend as the one proposed, mistakes in the taxing sections are full of trouble for some time to come.

"Apologists for the constitution may gloss over these questions by asserting that 'on the whole' they are an improvement, or 'just as good' or 'no worse than the present,' but a careful examination of these sections does not show this result, and my judgment is that they are worse than the present clauses."

"Do we want three income taxes in Illinois? Do we want to tax incomes of $500? Do we want to forbid the legislature to tax the $1,000,000 income more than three times the rate of the $500 income? Do we want the peculiar exemptions provided in this proposed document?"

MAN "PICKED UP" BY TRUCK DIES IN CROSSING CRASH

An unidentified man was killed and Edward Kingard, 1055 Mayfield avenue, driver of a truck of the Sorenson Transfer company, Oak Park, was injured yesterday evening, when the truck was struck by a Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul railroad passenger train at Round Lake, Ill.

The passenger train was northbound and a westbound freight train at the crossing is said to have obstructed the view of the driver. The man who was killed, Kingard told police, he had picked up shortly before the crash.

EUROPE'S UNR BLAMED ON BY CLEMENCE

Allies Left in Lurch Tells Business M

New York, Nov. 22.—[By United Press.]—George Clemenceau today laid at the door of the Allies blame for all the which Europe now seethes.

Speaking before his second York audience, an audience of business men, the Chamberlain of the State of New York, Clemenceau declared that America had left France "lurch" after the war.

"It was a great mistake without any proposal for a peace of matters," he declared, "the greatest mistake, source of all the evil that has come."

"People ask me 'what do you do?' he continued. 'I don't know what I want to do. I want to interfere in Europe, I want to let it go. I want to come back, make a little money, and then I want to go back to Europe, saying: "Well, now, what's the matter with something gone wrong? I want some help. Can I be of any use?"'

The chamber speaker was the high spots in the most day Clemenceau has had since he arrived here last Saturday for the first time. It was the first time in which was to be the America to a closer relation France.

Guarded by a double force of police, because some of himself "World War Veterans" were threatening letters, Clemenceau made his way to the chamber building, downtown financial district, cheering crowd.

From the chamber he Brooklyn, where Borough Riegelmann had proclaimed Clemenceau to review the 10th regiment. Crossing Manhattan Tiger's car plunged at once of wildly cheering school children French or American flags.

Reviews 106th Regiment

The 106th armory, where about 10,000, was packed. Clemenceau was given a long ovation. He was in review of the 106th regiment.

After he had placed a wreath commemorating the dead, Clemenceau faced the men and addressed them "in action of review of account."

Praising their work in the Tiger declared:

"All that remains for you to be as great in peace as you were in war. I will remain until peace is made. I will always be behind the citizens the ways the soldiers—magnificent."

Clemenceau Is Critic

The Tiger had evidence. His tour was not to be a path of roses. The broadest sharp criticisms from Sen. and others in official Washington newspaper commentary of the French peace alliance, seemed, however, the 51-year-old statesman's greater animation.

No specific comment on Clemenceau was obtainable from his defended himself against the opening of his chamber of address.

Men have been too much and may be overpraised, to I think that in my case. They ascribe to me too many sometimes too much good believe I have created a great deal of good. I dare not say so."

EUROPE'S UNREST BLAMED ON U. S. BY CLEMENCEAU

Alies Left in Lurch, He Tells Business Men.

New York, Nov. 22.—[By the Associated Press.]—Georges Clemenceau today told at the door of the United States House of Representatives that the United States was to blame for all the unrest in Europe now being experienced.

Speaking before his second New York audience—an audience of business men—at the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York, the French premier declared that America had left France "in the lurch" after the war.

"It was a great mistake to leave without any proposal for an adjustment of matters," he declared. "It was the greatest mistake, and the source of all the evil that is taking place now."

"People ask me 'what do you want to do?'" he continued. "I answer: 'I don't know what I want you to do. I want you to interfere in Europe because you left it too soon. I want you to come back, make a little new trip to Europe, saying: "Well now, gentlemen, what's the matter with you—something gone wrong? I will give you some help. Can I be of use?"'

The chamber speech was but one of the high spots in the most stirring day of Clemenceau's life since he arrived here last Saturday for a tour, the aim of which was to be the winning of America to a closer relationship with France.

Guarded by a double force of motorized police, because some one signing himself "World War Veteran" had sent a threatening letter, the Tiger spoke to the chamber building in the downtown financial district through a cheering crowd.

From the chamber he drove to Broadway, where Borough President Heppner had proclaimed a half holiday, to review the 106th infantry regiment, crossing Manhattan bridge, the Tiger's car plunged at once into a lane of wildly cheering school children waving French or American flags.

Reviewers 106th Regiment.

The 106th army, which seats about 10,000, was packed and the Tiger was given a long ovation as he walked slowly in review before the massed troops.

After he had placed a wreath on the tablet commemorating the regiment's dead, Clemenceau faced the uniformed men and addressed them "as a man of action to men of action."

Praising their work in France, the Tiger declared:

"All that remains for you now is to be as great in peace as you were in war. I will remain until my last breath a great admirer of the United States. And I will always remember that behind the citizens there are always the soldiers—magnificent soldiers."

Clemenceau is Criticized.

The Tiger had evidence today that his tour was not to be without a path of roses. The threatening letter, sharp criticisms from Senator Borah and others in official Washington, and adverse newspaper comment on his arrival of the French plea for a truce alliance, seemed, however, merely to stir the 81 year old statesman to greater animation.

No specific comment on the criticism was obtainable from him, but he defended himself against them in the opening of his chamber of commerce address.

Men have been too much criticized and may be overpraised, too," he said. "I think that is my case. Very often they accuse me too much of ill, and sometimes too much of good. I don't believe I have created a great deal of ill—certainly not to finger. A great deal of good, I dare not say."

HE WOULD BURN
GIRLS' COLLEGES; TEACH 'EM SENSE

New York, Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Alonso E. See, head of a big elevator company, would burn all women's colleges to the ground and put all college girls at hard manual labor for a year "to put into their heads some little trace of sense."

Mr. See expressed his views in replying to a form letter appeal from Adelphi college of Brooklyn to contribute toward a $1,000,000 endowment fund. Mr. See's letter said among other things:

"The young women of the United States do not need to be educated, but the education they do need is to leave off smoking cigarettes, stop using slang, stop their swagging, give up their bold and brazen manner, their painted faces, their high heeled shoes and to wear their hair decently."

"Of all foul things in the world I think the college for women is the worst."

ROBERT BURTON,
The English philosopher, in his "Anatomy of Melancholy" written in 1621 referred to coffee as follows:

"The Turks have a drink called coffee which they sip to look."

"Because they find by experience that it helps digestion and promotes alacrity."

"TIGER'S" SPEECH ON GERMAN WAR STIRS SENATORS

Borah and Hitchcock
in Sharp Reply.

BY GRAFTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The speech of M. Clemenceau in New York last night was received with indignation by several senators today.

Senator Borah (Idaho), leader of the "irreconcilable" opposition to the Versailles treaty, issued a statement bluntly assailing the distinguished French visitor.

"I am unable to accept Mr. Clemenceau's argument," said Senator Borah. "He tells us that Europe is sweltering in misery. So she is. For we have the deepest sympathy, but there is no man living more responsible for the present misery in Europe than Mr. Clemenceau. As the man who dominated the Paris peace conference he more than any other man is responsible for the impossible and destructive terms of the Versailles treaty. He more than any one else stood in the way of the American delegation to mollify the treaty and make it so that under it Europe could recover."

Senator Hitchcock (Neb.), who led the fight of the Wilson Democrats for ratification of the Versailles pact, was no less outspoken in his denunciation of the "Tiger's" remarks. He called on Clemenceau to explain why the French government maintains 30,000 black troops on the Rhine. He wants to know particularly, he says, whether the French are deliberately trying to provoke the Germans into warfare.

"Now that Germany is a republic, I should think France would try to placate her," Senator Hitchcock said. Other senators commented as follows:

Senator Caraway (Ark.)—France sent an envoy to the United States once before, in an effort to enlist aid for the revolutionary government. That envoy was sent home. Clemenceau's speech would have been a good one if conditions were as he painted them; but they are not.

Senator Edge (N. J.)—The appeal made by Clemenceau for assistance from America, with a threat of a new war as the alternative, is not in good taste and will accomplish nothing.

Senator Norris (Neb.)—The American people are against entangling alliances. They have no declared in every election held since the treaty was submitted. That ought to settle it.

FRANCE WILL REJECT NAVY LIMIT TREATY, HIGH OFFICIAL SAYS

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Georges Leygues, chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the French chamber of deputies, told THE TRIBUNE today that his committee had definitely decided to reject the Washington naval treaty.

"If we ever approve it, there will be so many vital reservations to the treaty that it will not be recognizable," M. Leygues said. "We will refuse to accept naval equality with Italy because France faces two seas and has a vast empire only eighteen hours from Marseilles. We refuse to accept post-war naval ratios, instead of pre-war, because the former proposal penalizes France for making a huge military effort during the war at the expense of a naval effort. Also we oppose the Root submarine resolution."

"It will be impossible for France to increase its navy for some years, possibly fourteen years, but French national pride has been deeply wounded. A vote will be overwhelmingly against the treaty. No one favors it except a few Communists."

Thompson and Hylan United for Hearst for President

New York, Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The New York Herald this morning prints the following dispatch from French Lick Springs, Ind.:

"Mayor Hylan of New York has perfected an alliance with Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago and they are ready to begin their nation-wide drive for the nomination of William Randolph Hearst for President in 1924."

"The club to be held over the heads of the Democratic leaders is a threat that Hearst will lead a third party, into which will be gathered all insurgents, farmer and labor elements dissatisfied with the two old line policies."

"In their political dream the New York and Chicago mayors are believed to see themselves in the United States senate battling for Hearst policies emanating from the White House."

"Effort is now being made to attract to the Hearst leadership the group of insurgents, chief of whom are Senators Johnson, Borah, and La Follette. Whether these men would enlist under the Hearst banner is not so certain. They are credited with aspirations similar to Hearst's and their ambitions may conflict."

STATEMENT BY MR. HYLAN.
A copyright statement given to the United News by Mayor Hylan in French Lick last night says:

"The people of the country have been fooled in the past by international bankers, the powerful public utility interests, and their agents throughout the United States, controlling both the Republican and Democratic parties."

"These interests are at work now to control the nominees of both parties in 1924 and will endeavor to place in nomination at the national convention that year men whom they can control and who will do their bidding."

"If that can be accomplished their work is done. They then will allow the people to fight it out among themselves. Either candidate will suit them."

"People Have Seen Light."
"The honest people of both parties and of the different religious denominations have seen the light and are not now fighting among themselves as they were once while these powerful interests were exploiting the people."

"In the past big interests have kept the plain people at odds among themselves. I believe these interests are now stirring up religious and race prejudice through the Ku Klux Klan. This side show, they hope, will be of sufficient national interest to detract the public's attention from the many vital national issues to the extent that the people will again be hoodwinked into voting for standpat candidates, whether they are on the Democratic or Republican ticket."

Threat of Third Party.
"Both of the old parties must adopt a progressive platform and select men of proven progressive records and if the people want to get rid of Wall street manipulators and big interest control at Washington, they must begin now to organize in every state."

"If the old parties do not nominate men of the character of William Johnson and William Randolph Hearst, who have fought these interests openly in behalf of the people, and neither party nominates a candidate of a progressive type, then a third party will be inevitable."

SENATOR FELTON IS NOW AN "EX," BUT SHE'S HAPPY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The first American woman senator, Mrs. W. H. Felton of Georgia, closed her senatorial career today after answering once to her name and making a brief address. Her successor, Walter F. George, was sworn in, and Mrs. Felton became a former senator after an actual service of 22 hours and 25 minutes.

"Happiest Woman in U. S."
"I am the happiest woman in the United States today," said Mrs. Felton in her address. She added that she regarded her brief service as senator as "a historical fact" as well as a "romantic incident."

Several times senators broke into laughter as she referred humorously to her effort to be seated, if only for a day.

"Junior Senator from Georgia."

Mrs. Felton delivered her address of about five minutes immediately after calling of the senate roll. She was recognized by Senator Cummins of Iowa, president pro tem, as "the junior senator from Georgia," and spoke with notes in her hand but without once referring to them.

She thanked senators for their "hospitable welcome." Her state, she said, had been slow to promise woman suffrage but "rapid in performance." She closed with a discussion of the beneficial effect of the entrance of women into political life.

RURAL CREDITS BILL COMES UP AT THIS SESSION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Rural credits legislation began to take form today when a new bill sponsored by the American National Live Stock association and approved by Eugene Meyer Jr., managing director of the War Finance corporation, was made public.

The bill was presented by Fred H. Bixby, president of the association, at a conference of a number of members of the senate farm bloc and will be introduced in the senate tomorrow by Senator Capper [Kas.], head of the farm bloc.

The bill authorizes the formation of agricultural credit corporations with a minimum capital of $250,000. The corporations would furnish credit on agricultural products.

Senator Norris [Neb.], chairman of the senate committee on agriculture, introduced in the senate today a bill designed to meet the needs of agriculture in a different way. His bill proposes the establishment of a $100,000,000 government corporation with authority to buy and sell farm products.

SHIP BILL FINDS EASY SAILING IN HOUSE FIRST DAY

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Administration leaders encountered little difficulty today in obtaining adoption in the house of a special rule for the consideration of the ship subsidy bill. Only sixteen Republicans voted against the rule. It was adopted, 209 to 116. Three Democrats voted in favor of it.

The house Democrats, in caucus, agreed to vote solidly against the subsidy, although Representative O'Connor [La.] announced afterward that he would not be bound by the party action.

Middle West Opponents.

Republican members who voted against the house rule were from the middle west, mostly from Wisconsin and Iowa. They were Representatives Beck, Browne, Frear, Lampert, John M. Nelson, and Volgt of Wisconsin; Boies, Dickinson, Dowell, Hull, Kopp, and Townner of Iowa; Cline and Keller of Minnesota; Sinclair of North Dakota; and James of Michigan. The Democrats voting for the rule were Representatives Lee [Cal.], McDuffie [Ala.], and O'Connor [La.].

Some Republicans who will vote against the bill supported the rule because it was liberal in its nature, imposing no restrictions upon the offering of amendments.

Johnson to Fight Bill.

Representative Johnson [S. D.], a Republican member of the rules committee, supported the rule, but announced that he would vote against the bill, declaring his belief that the people of the country are against it.

The rules committee earlier in the day approved the rule by a vote of 4 to 3, members dividing on party lines.

The rule provides for three days of general debate, beginning tomorrow, following by three days of consideration of amendments, with the final vote on the bill next Wednesday.

Cupid taught geography to C. A. Anderson, the 48 year old sheik, whose course of true love runs like an isotherm circling the map of the United States.

Anderson, alias Alfred Andrews, who today in the Court of Domestic Relations will answer charges of bigamy preferred by one of his "club" of wives. Mrs. Edna Hoover Anderson spent yesterday at the Town Hall station sticking pins in the spots on the map where love had enamored him. He ran out of pins when he had spiked Salina, Wichita, Peoria, Tulsa, Kansas City, Omaha, Dallas, Waco, Bryan, Fort Worth, Decatur, Burlington, Des Moines, Lincoln, Indianapolis, and Chicago.

A Girl in Every Town.

The tall, bald headed record breaking lover, with a girl in every town, a marriage certificate from some of the best states in the west, and a bundle of love letters with post marks from most of the accredited postoffices, gave the following battling average of love, geography, and finance: Peoria, Miss Edna Dunkle; $700. Omaha, Dallas, Waco, Bryan, "lots of girls, but no dough." Kansas City, Mrs. Myrtle Hurd, married; $1,750. Wichita, Manhattan, Fort Worth, just girls. Des Moines, married; forgotten her name; $30. Mrs. Emma Rivera, $500; Mrs. Edna Hoover Anderson, married; no money.

How He Collected.

As he surveyed the list, regretful that he could not remember the names of others of his wives and sweethearts, the sheik never forgot the cash balance that went with each love affair. His usual way of obtaining funds, he recalled, was to tell the object of his affections that he had been held up, so that his car had been stolen.

Miss Edna Dunkle of Peoria was "25, pretty nice, but kinda homely." "I made a slip to her," said Mr. Anderson, "and she wanted to get married, but I left because she was homely." A few weeks later, when broke in Tulsa, he wrote Miss Edna and she wired him $700.

The next real adventure was in Kansas City, where he painted garages for a wealthy widow. He ran out of paint and was introduced to the widow's widow friend, Mrs. Myrtle Hurd, who gave him $100 at once. After his wedding ceremony, she raised some money on mortgages and deposited $2,500 in his name.

Didn't Take All Her Money.

The sheik was chivalrous, he admits. "I'm human and I didn't want to take it all. So I drew out $1,650 and went to Lorraine, Ill., to visit a girl I had been corresponding with through a matrimonial paper. But I didn't like her."

In Chicago he had a difficult time preventing, he says, a Mrs. Elizabeth Metcalf, 3531 West North avenue, from marrying him.

Later he was married in Des Moines to a "nice lady with a nice car." He has forgotten her name but remembers that she gave him $30 some forty-eight hours after the ceremony and thirty minutes before he deserted her. Another "nice old maid" whom he met at a Lincoln, Neb., church, gave him a merry chase and $250.

Mrs. Cora Havalline of Indianapolis had $12,000 and a desire for a husband. "But she was homely," and the sheik didn't need money then, so he left town.

BY PARKE BROWN.

William Wrigley Jr. said yesterday that he will not be a candidate for mayor of Chicago "under any circumstances."

At a recent conference of Brundage-Crooks leaders the subject of available timber of high class was discussed, and Attorney General Brundage agreed to ask Wrigley if he was to be considered a possibility. From this sprang a political yarn that this group was urging Wrigley to become its candidate.

When the story was published The Tribune telegraphed Wrigley, then en route to Washington, and received from Crestline, O., the following reply: "Wire received. While I much appreciate the suggested honor, my fixed future plans will not allow me under any circumstances to become a candidate for the office of mayor of Chicago."

LANDIS WORKER'S DEATH LAID TO PUNCH ON JAW

Death on July 19 of Richard Tredeco, 612 Wrightwood avenue, at first attributed by police to enmity against the citizens' committee to enforce the Landis award, was said last night to have been due to his sneers at George Drucker, 4138 North Sacramento avenue.

Drucker, arrested Tuesday, is said to have confessed last night that he struck Tredeco on the jaw when he "made faces at him" while they were at work. A coroner's jury having recommended that the man responsible for the death be held to the grand jury on manslaughter charges, Drucker is held incommunicado.

CHILDERS SENT INTO EXILE BY IRISH, REPORT

LONDON, Nov. 22.—[By the Associated Press.]—The colonial office this afternoon denied that Erskine Childers had been sent by the provisional Irish Free State government to Ascension Island in the south Atlantic, as rumored in Belfast, although the officials declined to state where he was being held. "Ascension Island" is believed here to be merely a slang name for one of the islands off the Irish coast which is being used by the Free Staters as a detention camp.

HOW TO GET BACK THE "JOY OF LIFE"

LIFE isn't worth living if you're so weak and run down you can hardly drag yourself around. If the rich red blood, full of health and vigor, were pumping through your veins, the joy of life would come back soon enough. Gude's Pepto-Mangan has worked this magic for thousands—it will do the same for you.

Take it for a short time and see how your health and strength improve, and the old "pep" and energy come back to you. Your druggist has it—liquid or tablets, as you prefer.

Hassel's "Brogue," $7

This is one of our splendid young men's styles. You can see at once it has the smart custom look; note the faultless details carefully. It's an all-weather, all leather shoe of sterling quality. We guarantee every pair and as for value, we positively know you'll not be able to match it in town. Comes in genuine Norwegian grain calfskin, black or tan shade; high or low shoes. Mail orders shipped prepaid anywhere in the United States.

Your idea of a good shoe is a lot different from the next fellow's; his is different from the next. You won't all be satisfied at one store unless there is an extraordinary large range of styles for you to pick from.

That's why Hassel's is becoming more and more a headquarters for men's shoes. Chicagoans are learning that they can find here just the style they want, in the right size and at a fair price.

All kinds of shoes are here, for dress and business, and the prices are reasonable: $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, $10.

STATION TO COST $100,000,000 IS PLAN OF N. Y. C.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

An enormous railway terminal, fronting on Harrison street from Franklin to La Salle street, has been worked out in railroad terms by the engineers of the New York Central. This terminal is said to be the longest of any passenger station in the world.

The proposed terminal will cost more than $100,000,000, and the designers of the plan propose a station that will surpass any Chicago has built or is building. The terminal is claimed by its sponsors to be amply sufficient for the fourteen railroads which now use the Dearborn, La Salle, and Grand Central stations for many years to come.

Rivals the Pennsylvania.

The New York Central appears to be anxious to have a terminal in Chicago which will be more monumental, larger, and more accessible than the new Union station, in which its rival, the Pennsylvania, is interested.

In addition, the Western Indiana road, which owns the Dearborn street terminal, has been studying the terminal situation with a view to erecting a new terminal; and the Illinois Central, with its new terminal, is desirous of getting more tenants. Not only the Illinois Central station but the Dearborn and the New York Central are looking upon the fourteen roads west of State street as prospective tenants.

General Planning Season.

Accordingly it is hazardous to predict what new stations will be constructed. If the Illinois Central can offer better facilities on better terms than its rivals it will gain some of the south side roads as tenants. The reverse is equally true. So the present is a general planning season by the railroads other than those using the Union and Northwestern stations. Apparently the New York Central group is now attempting to show the roads using the Grand Central station the advantages of a combination, because the New York Central plan contemplates the use of the Grand Central terminal land combined with that of the La Salle street terminal.

To carry it out, the south branch of the river would have to be straightened. When that is accomplished, the engineers of the New York Central contend, according to current report, that they can design and construct a terminal which will give such enormous facilities to all the fourteen roads now housed between the river and State street that the block between Dearborn and State streets could be released from railroad occupation for commercial purposes.

cause it was not notified of the new date of the conference and its request to participate on equality with the other powers was not answered," said M. Vorovskiy. "Russia insists on an equal voice with other nations in determining the régime at the Dardanelles."

"Either the conference must permit the Turks to control the straits, granting free passage to merchant shipping and war ships in peace time, or establish an international commission, including a Russian representative."

"The Russian government opposes league of nations control because that would be merely camouflage for British domination of the Dardanelles. Russia prefers out and out allied control to league of nations because the other entente powers would at least participate, whereas navyless league control would mean that England alone would have the say."

"In accordance with the Moscow-Angora treaty, the Turkish and Russian delegates will work together to protect their mutual interests at the conference. Now that the proposition for two separate conferences, one to make peace and the other to settle the Dardanelles question, has been abandoned and it has been decided to have one parley, the soviet delegates expect to be present at the meetings of Lord Curzon's political, military, and territorial committee which interests Russia primarily."

SUSPECT POISON PLOT WHEN SIX IN FAMILY DIE

Victim Feared Shop Striker, He Said.

LANCASTER, O., Nov. 22.—[By the Associated Press.]—Authorities investigating the mysterious deaths of Irvine Henderson, his wife, and their four small children, whose bodies were found scattered about their home shortly before noon today, tonight had their first tangible clue.

Dr. R. W. Mondhawk announced that Henderson had consulted with him last Friday and several times since over a mysterious malady which had affected members of his family, and had told him he feared he was being given poison.

Henderson, who was employed as a stationary engineer in the Pennsylvania railroad shops here, where the shopmen's strike is still unsettled, said he believed he was being poisoned by those who resented his accepting employment at the shops. Dr. Mondhawk said. Henderson gave him the name of a man he suspected, the physician declared, and this was turned over to the authorities.

Prosecutor Charles Radcliffe said he was investigating all angles of the situation and was awaiting word from Columbus, where vital organs of two of the dead persons had been taken for analysis. From the first, it was said, the authorities believed the deaths had been the result of either poisoning or asphyxiation.

Investigation was being made tonight of statements that Mrs. Henderson had been acting peculiarly for several days. Dr. Mondhawk said each time he had visited the Henderson home Mrs. Henderson had been sitting with her face in her hands near a stove.

The supposition that enemies might have been responsible for the deaths was strengthened, police said, by fears expressed by the dead man in a letter written to the state board of health and found unopened on the floor of the Henderson home, that some one might have gotten into the house while he was away at night.

Try Being Kind to your face

The world's fastest shave. 78 seconds from lather to towel.
And skin smooth as a baby's. A new delight for men

Here is an adventure in kindness to your face. A shave that doesn't tug or pull—that doesn't smart or irritate.

We've processed a barber's edge—the keenest cutting edge known—on a safety razor blade. That's the story in few words.

Now we invite you to the smoothest shave the world has ever known. And the fastest—78 seconds from lather to towel—for you men to shave quick with this keen blade.

Over the face—ONCE

No scraping. No after smart. No shaving lotions needed to protect the face.

Once over the face—that is all.

Thus you reduce shaving time one-half. And save your face, for dull-edged blades play havoc with the skin.

Modern dermatologists are telling men of that fact. Three men in four past 35, they say, look years older than they are because of improper shaving methods. This new blade—now a part of every Valet AutoStop Razor—overcomes it.

Shaves like lightning. And a velvet shave every time; the skin left as smooth as a baby's.

Sharpens itself

Note too that it strops itself—a patented Valet AutoStop feature which all men know. And we recommend the stropping for the same reason a barber does. A keen, fresh edge for every shave. But that's up to you. You can strop or not, as you choose—or insert new blades instead, as you feel the need.

Make the test

78 seconds for a velvet shave—that's our proposition. Pick up a Valet AutoStop Razor at your dealer's today.

You can obtain a Valet AutoStop at any dealer's, $1 and $5. The difference in price is marked by the superlative finish, the better case and the greater number of blades. Gold and silver plated fitted sets—ideal for gifts—are priced up to $25.

Whichever one you choose will do the work—the world's fastest shave.

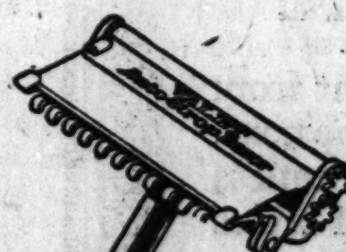

Make the test. It will amaze you.

3 things in a shave you've never had before

First—a super-velvet shave, going over the face one time. No scraping.

Second—a quick shave. 78 seconds from lather to towel. Only a super-keen blade can do it.

Third—a 78 second velvet shave every day. The strop keeps up the edge of the blade.

A strop comes with each set, except Model C-22. The strop is sold extra if wanted.

DENIES DYNAMITE "FRAMEUP TALE" IN MADER TRIAL

Ex-Policeman Claims He Never Told Story.

FRED MADER.

Dynamite as the principal subject of the court hearing, yesterday almost "blew up" the state's murder case against Fred Mader and Daniel McCarthy and, after court adjourned, rebounded to what may mean the shattering of Mader's charge of police "planting" of dynamite in the home of John Miller, the other defendant.

Mader's testimony was that Joseph O'Donnell, former policeman, recently informed him that the dynamite found in Miller's home was obtained by the police in a house in Polk street, a few weeks previous. The record came during the night with O'Donnell's flat denial to Chief of Police Fitzmorris that he had ever told Mader any such thing.

"Frameup" Charge Halts Trial.

As employee of the citizen's committee, Robert Baird, was responsible for the day's proceedings. Closing arguments were about to be begun Tuesday afternoon in the trial of the three for the murder of Lieut. Terrence Lyons last spring. It was learned that Baird had told several persons the charge against Mader and McCarthy was a "frameup." Judge Oscar Hebel halted the proceedings and Baird was taken into custody.

The basis of the murder charge against the two labor leaders was the police theory that Miller and his companions who killed Lieut. Lyons were employed as bomb terrorists by Mader, McCarthy, "Big Tim" Murphy, and "Don" Shea. Finding of dynamite in Miller's home was regarded as supporting this theory. Lack of evidence eliminated Murphy and Shea in the first trial, which resulted in a disagreement.

Mader Tells His Story.

With the opening of court yesterday Attorney Frank Comerford moved that the "veil of secrecy" be lifted in justice to the defendants. The court decided to hear evidence, the jury being excluded. The testimony began with an attempt to explain Baird's remarks as a "drunken talk." This gave Mader an opportunity and his counsel, Senator James J. Barbour, asked that he be permitted to testify.

"An officer named Joe O'Donnell told me that while he was at the detective bureau some dynamite was being taken to Judge Taylor's court for evidence," Mader began. "He said a member of Lieut. Wellings' squad told him the dynamite was found when they were investigating a murder on April 27 at 236 West Polk street. Five Italians were arrested, he said, and fourteen sticks were discovered."

Talks With Another Detective.

"I then got in touch with Detective Joseph Ferrone and asked him if he had heard the rumor that it was the same dynamite they were using in our trial. He said he did but he would not come to court and testify as he would lose his job. I promised to get him one just as good but he wouldn't come anyway."

Judge Hebel ordered court adjourned with all the police involved and Baird could be brought in. Sergeant Lawrence McDonough, dynamite expert of the department, was the first witness when court resumed. He testified he had no recollection of any dynamite being turned over to him during April. He said Baird told him something about police putting the stuff in Miller's home but he paid no attention to it. He declared he sent Baird home and told Attorney Godman of the Ci-

Tells of Madding Dynamite.

Lieut. Wellings of the detective bureau admitted the finding of dynamite in the Polk street address and said it was taken to the Marquette station. This was corroborated by other policemen.

Police Custodian Joseph Capp testified he had not received any dynamite from the Marquette station since that time and Attorney Comerford established that police rules were such that it would have been sent down town by the Marquette police if they received it.

Detective Ferrone admitted being with Wellings at the time of the Polk street murder, but declared he knew nothing of the dynamite discovery.

McDonough Gets Mixed.

Sergeant McDonough offered to explain away the Polk street dynamite and told of taking some from the Marquette station and throwing it in the canal. When confronted with his previous statement that he was positive he had obtained no dynamite during April, he became confused and asserted that thrown in the canal was obtained at another place than the Polk street murder. After court adjourned he stated he recalled throwing the Polk street dynamite in the river and said he would so testify today.

O'Donnell, who resigned some months ago under charges, told Chief Fitzmorris he would appear as a witness today and refute Mader's testimony.

PRIZE BUILDING AWARD NARROWS TO 12 DESIGNS

The first and extremely anxious stage in the Tribune's $100,000 prize competition for designs for its new building on the boulevard has been successfully passed.

Having studied 167 designs submitted by architects in Europe and America, the advisory committee of six Chicago citizens and officials reports enthusiastically upon twelve designs.

This is its preliminary verdict: "The committee believes that the selection of any one of the twelve designs, the numbers of which are given herewith, would be a credit to Chicago, Michigan avenue and The Tribune."

Report on Twelve Designs.

The twelve numbers are:

|    |     |     |
|----|-----|-----|
| 47 | 104 | 151 |
| 78 | 119 | 82  |
| 89 | 72  | 22  |

Neither Chicago nor The Tribune

will know who are the authors of the designs thus indicated until Dec. 1, when announcement of the winning competitor will be made by a jury comprising Alfred Granger of the American Institute of Architects and Capt. Joseph M. Patterson, Col. Robert R. McCormick, Edward S. Beck, and Holmes Onderdonk of The Tribune.

Identities Kept Secret.

The advisory committee assisting The Tribune made its twelve selections without knowing the identity of any of the 167 competitors. It regrets that many striking designs could not be considered because the authors of them failed to comply with duly announced mandatory provisions. The advisers were gratified by the expression of high ideals and a sense of journalistic and civic fitness in many of the plans, and they close their report by an assurance of appreciation "for the opportunity to have a part in this great undertaking."

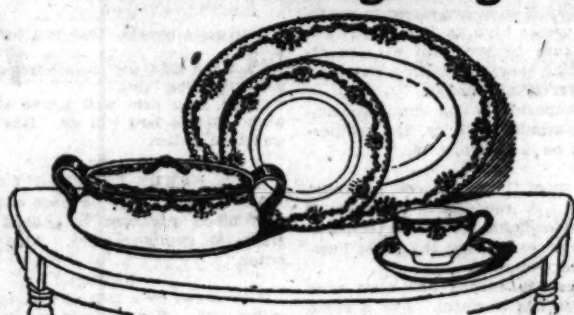

The Tribune, in turn, heartily thanks the committee for assistance that was patiently and skillfully given. The citizens and officials to whom we are indebted are: B. M. Winston, chairman; Ald. Dersey Crowe, Ald. E. I. Frankhauser, Sheldon Clark, Harry A. Wheeler, and Joy Morton.

Concerning a Neighbor of Yours

Chicago

A mark of craftsmanship known the world over

YOU can't keep a good telephone down.

In 1877 Chicagoans at the first Western Electric plant here were making a dozen telephones a week. Now they make 3500 a day, at the Western Electric Hawthorne works.

Every Chicagoan ought to be proud of this growth, because the men and women of this city helped to bring it about.

These neighbors of yours, by their diligent work, have produced telephone equipment that is well-nigh mechanically and electrically perfect. In so doing, they have made Chicago the telephone capital of the world.

MR. CLEMENCEAU TALKS TO AMERICA.

Mr. Clemenceau is here in the role of a whole-hearted advocate for his country, a role which American diplomats and emissaries can well afford to study and one in which he is welcome.

He is here in appreciation of the fact that American foreign policy is directed by the American people, a matter that he ignored when he obtained from President Wilson at the peace conference a treaty entirely to his liking. But the American senate rejected the treaty and the American people afterward affirmed the rejection. The consequence has been that France is less well off than if Mr. Clemenceau's victory over President Wilson had not been so overwhelming.

In his new role Mr. Clemenceau is rendering us a service by letting in light on some of the mysteries of the war and the peace. He says that but for America at the time of the armistice France would have gone on to Berlin.

Mr. Clemenceau also says that Mr. Lloyd George has directly misstated the conversation between himself and Mr. Clemenceau over the treaty which he and President Wilson signed regarding the protection of France against Germany. Undoubtedly more revelations from Mr. Clemenceau are to follow, and undoubtedly they will elicit responses from other figures in the great drama.

All in all, Mr. Clemenceau's visit promises to be interesting and instructive.

CIVILIAN AID IN WAR.

Money spent on national defense is begrudged by congress and doubtless by a good many taxpayers. That we should obtain means for a military and naval establishment even on the moderate scale recommended by those who are competent to judge in such matters is, therefore, out of the question. But a great deal to strengthen our military conditions can be done without expenditure of money, and we are glad that Gen. Pershing and Maj. Gen. Harbord are calling attention to the civilian phase of preparation.

Modern wars are not merely the job of the professional soldier. They require a tremendous organization of civilian effort. They require a drastic reorganization of economic activity, with readjustments which affect the whole nation.

It is folly and worse than folly to procrastinate and postpone this phase of preparation until war is declared. It is folly because this phase of preparation costs little or nothing in money. It is worse than folly because procrastination means enormous avoidable waste of money when war arrives and, what is more deplorable, avoidable waste of life and prolongation of the war, if not defeat.

In the late war our system of war production, procurement, and supply had to be improvised. Our plan of civilian control had to be invented and amended under pressure of war conditions. From that experience we should have learned enough to create a practical system for the prompt and efficient mobilization of the nation's resources in case of danger. Gen. Pershing reports that the war department has a plan under consideration for an efficiency council or board of control. If we draw correct inferences from Gen. Pershing's speech in New York last Friday, this council will be made up mainly of civilians of large experience in commerce, manufacture, and transportation, who are competent to direct the production and supply of war necessities in such manner as to obtain the best results with greatest efficiency and such economies as are compatible with the exigencies of war.

Such a council undoubtedly should be created and it should function in peace in the preparation of plans, the selection of competent personnel, the thorough organization of information. But civilian experience and competence should dominate original supply. It is the function of the military command to fight. It should inform the civilian experts what it needs, and when and where. The civilian is best fitted to attend to that.

We must suffer no repetition of the personnel fiasco of the late war, in which regular army pride and traditional notions of rank often threw away valuable civilian service. An industrial mobilization plan should deal vigorously with this problem so that a civilian of experience and known ability in a special field should not be subordinated in his own field to some young West Pointer simply because he has been given a commission of lower military rank. Rank must be respected, of course, but in what may be called the civilian branches of war rank should be adjusted to special fitness and not professional status.

The problem of our defense establishment today is to develop a system under which civilian ability and experience can be utilized to the full in case of war; it is a problem of properly coordinating and articulating civilian ability with military by clarifying their proper spheres and devising a sound scheme of cooperation.

If this is accomplished, we think there is no doubt that able civilians will come forward, as Gen. Pershing appeals to them to do, to take places in the military system.

THE SOLUTION OF GRAIN TRANSPORT TROUBLES.

The Canadian government finds itself confronted with the difficult task of relieving the congestion of grain movement between the head of the lakes and the seaboard. Reports from Goderich, Port Colborne, and Montreal to the dominion authorities at Ottawa show the congestion is so serious as to greatly delay marketing and check the business prosperity of western Canada.

At the same time an Omaha authority complains that movement of Canadian grain in bond over American railroad lines, and on American boats from Lake Superior ports, is delaying American deliveries so seriously that American farmers are suffering severe losses. An embargo against Canadian grain offered under bond for transportation on American lines is asked by some western shippers.

The solution of such difficulties and the removal of such economic handicaps is so simple as to be obvious. It is the construction of the St. Lawrence seaway. That improvement has been formally approved by the international joint commission after many months of painstaking investigation. Secretary Hughes has asked the dominion government to negotiate a treaty under which the seaway could be constructed. The dominion government, influenced strongly by shipping and water power interest in the province of Quebec, has declined on the ground that the time is not opportune.

Meanwhile the great productive western provinces of Canada suffer, and the dominion as a whole suffers heavy economic losses. At the same time middle western producers in the United States are similarly handicapped and penalized by lack of adequate transportation. This season grain is being carried by lake freighters some 1,000 miles through four lakes and the Soo locks to Buffalo at a rate of about 2 cents a bushel, while the same grain is taxed 17½ cents a bushel for transportation some 370 miles from Buffalo to Montreal. With the completion of the St. Lawrence seaway this freight differential would be removed, transportation charges at Buffalo and again at Montreal would be removed, time would be shortened by many hours, and congestion could be eliminated.

In such circumstances it is difficult to understand how eastern Canada can block the development which means so much to western Canada directly, and to the entire dominion indirectly. A friendly warning to the obstructionists may be found in the statement of Gov. Preuss of Minnesota, explaining the recent midwestern verdict against the G. O. P. in the congressional elections. He declares the midwestern repudiation of Republican candidates to be due directly to a general revolt of citizens in this territory to eastern domination, such as New York opposition to the St. Lawrence seaway. He might have added "Pittsburgh plus" and other economic and political abuses which have had effective support in the east to the disadvantages of the west.

Canada might well take a lesson from that. The seaway is such a logical and needed improvement that every shipper and producer in western Canada and midwestern United States can see an immediate economic gain through its development. It means cash in their pockets, and large amounts of cash. They will insist upon it, and they will get it. Let it be soon.

BURN THE SMOKE.

A new anti-smoke campaign in Chicago has been launched by Health Commissioner Bunsden. He has organized a smoke abatement commission designed to reduce the evil. H. W. Evans, chairman of the commission, says the annual loss directly attributable to the smoke evil in Chicago is $20,000,000. That should be sufficient, even without the evidence constantly before our eyes, to fix public attention on the evil and win support for any movement which promises to reduce it.

Frankly, however, though we have full sympathy with the effort, we do not expect to see Chicago restored promptly to pristine cleanliness through the new commission. It may help. We hope it does. But at best it cannot do one-tenth or one-hundredth part of what the citizens of Chicago could do without such a commission if they were willing or intelligent enough to do the obvious things.

Smoke is largely due to carelessness or ignorance. It is due to improper combustion of fuel. Thus gases, soot, and various combustibles are carried into the air to lodge on buildings, on white collars, on carpets and hangings, and in lungs and nostrils. Every bit of smoke released to do such damage is evidence of waste. Properly built furnaces and proper building and stocking of fires will save perhaps half the coal bill due to poor furnaces and unintelligent firing. At the same time they could save probably more than half of the $20,000,000 now estimated as the annual damage due to smoke in Chicago.

Intelligent factory managers know this. The best managed factories are the least smoky ones. They burn their coal instead of driving it away through the chimney to soil a neighbor's facade. A big factory cannot afford to waste coal. When it does so it is because of neglect or inefficiency of an employee and is promptly corrected if the management is awake. How, then, can a small house or flat owner afford to waste his fuel at the present high prices? He cannot. A little study and a little supervision of janitors will show the way to savings which will be immense in the aggregate.

A cleaner and more healthful and more prosperous city can result from such efforts. There is a field for the new smoke abatement commission.

Editorial of the Day

TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

Democrats are stepping high today. The reaction from "normalcy," high tariffs, and unfulfilled promises has been democratic and right. The outstanding feature of the balloting everywhere was the fine spirit of independence of the voters. Men and women of all parties have served notice upon the professional politicians which they cannot fail to understand.

That in Illinois sentiment has swung heavily against the party which lists this state as a political battle is not surprising. Future years will find Illinois in the "do-or-die" rather than in any partisan column.

The victory for Democracy in Chicago and in several congressional and senatorial districts down state which have been Republican is nothing short of a triumph.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

"HELP us keep peace!" shouted Georges Clemenceau in New York Monday night. Georges, you are talking to the wrong parties. That big audience in the Metropolitan Opera House in Manhattan cannot help you. Go to the long-distance telephone, Georges, and call up Hon. H. C. Winniford, or any of the girls who belong to the Pacific society, or any of the men who belong to the Pacific society, or any of the Germans and shake her finger at them and tell them "Naughty, naughty!" And then, of course, there will be no more war.

Scolded me—once.
I cried and couldn't find my handkerchief
And he handed me his nice big one to use—once.
I have felt sorry—once Or twice since then
That I stopped working for him, and I want
To cry into his handkerchief again—once.

HOP DEVEREARD.

BUT NO! A REPRISAL!

Dear R. H. L.: Hell hath no fury like a woman's corns. You'll be sorry when you read my obituary in the Dziennik Zwiazkowy and realize that one Line o' Type might have saved my life.

CHARLOTTE.

NOW MAMA! WE'LL JUST BET YOU'VE GOT BOTH OF 'EM PASTED AWAY IN YOUR SCRIBBLER, YOU LITTLE RASCAL.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE: I wish to call your attention to the two poems—"A Lady Lived in Lesbo," by "The King of the Black Isles," and "Fame," by "Dorothy Dow," printed in your Line
o' Type or Two column last week. It is necessary that your kiddies and mine be saved frequent mornings by barrack room ballads and songs. X.

AH, THE ELSE! We would like to print more ELSE than we do, mama. But, anyhow, while we do things every day that cause many excellent people severe shooting pains we NEVER, NEVER, NEVER, refer to children as kiddies. That, to us, is the unforgivable crime. And, mama, it is absolutely necessary that the "kiddies" (gosh, we hate to write the odious word) read the Line o' Type. Let them read the Bright Sayings of Children and Clifford's Commuters' Ticket on Sunday morning and look at the pretty pictures on the back page, but favevins sake! don't feed those children raw meat. As for barrack room ballads, mama, you are thinking of Mr. Kipling, and since Mr. Kipling spoke so unkindly of our glorious country we never think of him.

AS ONE KING TO ANOTHER.

Dear R. H. L.: Who said it is the twilight of kings? Lesbo disproves the assertion! I'd rather be the author of the poem signed by The King of the Black Isles than to be the author of anything ever signed by Aborigines.

There are some lines in the poem that are to live, and the music of it haunts me. But such a standard! It will discourage us lesser scribes.
My own work compared with the King's poems seems so trivial; so commonplace.

But I've been to Lesbo and I know the town:
I met the lovely Lady who wore an evening gown;
she wore it for my rival, and he was there to see;
but when he stooped to get her fan her eyes smiled out to me; her eyes smiled out to me, Dick—her heart was in her eyes—my rival lives in Lesbo and I in Paradise.

SKIN NEEDS FRESH AIR.

MOST of the good effects of fresh air are due to the impact of air
of low temperature on the skin,
and most of the harmful effects of foul air are due to the depressing influence of quiet, warm air on the skin.

The old theory was that men threw off poisons in the air they exhaled. It may be they do, but, up to date, the finest chemical and bacterial tests have failed to show that there is such a poison.

The next theory was that the harmful effects were due to low oxygen and high carbonic acid content. The airplane knocked the old propeller under the first part of that theory. The record altitude flying and the laboratory experimenting done in connection therewith have established the minimum proportion of oxygen required in air for human use, and the point at which it is necessary for the flyer to supply oxygen to the air he breathes. This point is well below any percentage ever reached in any living room, store or factory.

As to the carbonic acid content, it is proved that the human animal can stand far higher percentages than are ever found in basements and subways, and that the reason for C O 2 standards in ventilation ordinances is that they may measure air stagnation, and not to estimate harmfulness directly.

People need moving cool air if they are to keep healthy, especially during the winter months. The temperature needed will vary upon what they are engaged in. If they are sitting quietly, and especially if they are alone in years,
a temperature as high as 70 is allowable.
A temperature higher than that is always harmful except in both rooms and nurseries at certain hours.

If the occupation is one entailing considerable muscular activity, the temperature must be well below 70.

Not only must the air be cool; it must be moving. A reasonable number of drafts, of reasonable force and temperature, are a necessity, but the draft business can be overcome.

Authorities are agreed now that even temperatures are harmful. For a room to be healthy, the temperature must rise and fall through several degrees.

Our fathers had an excellent plan and we will do well to follow it. Every hour, or hour, they would throw up
the window and blow out the fog air.
Incidentally, they would lower the temperature of the room and freshen the air. As a rule, during this period of air freshening, the occupants of the room would arise. Those who were about to live at the place I had made a deposit to life.

amount of work agreed to do, so that I would not let him start. My house is all torn up. The owner is always out can't do anything. Can I break the lease?

Can I compel the owner to do the clean-

the coat was in storage and tried to make me take another, an inferior coat.
He put me off three times and I finally asked for the coat I had origi-

CHOOSING GUARDIAN.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—[To the Friend of the People.]—1. At what age can a girl choose her own guardian? P. O.

1. The law does not specify. Consideration is likely to be given to the preference of the child.
2. Yes. He can sue.

MEMORY TESTS

1. For what is Sevastopol famous?
For a siege which it sustained for one year against the combined English, French, Turkish and Serbian armies.
It was a Russian fortification; a perpetual menace to Turkey, and its destruction ended the Crimean war.
2. In what direction from Manila is the island of Mindanao? Southeast.
3. To which "Faustine" does Ber-trams' noted poem of that title refer?
"Faustine," the wife of the famous philosophical emperor, Marcus Aure-lius. The elder "Faustine" was the wife of Antoninus Pius. Both are accused of bad conduct.
4. What is a segment? A portion of a plane bounded by an arc of a circle and its chord is called a segment of a circle. If the chord is a diameter the segment is called a semicircle.
5. Which battle was the turning point of the American revolution?
Battle of Saratoga. [Oct. 17, 1777.]

THE McBRIDE CONTROVERSY.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—You are attacking
the wrong "boss" when you attack Mc-Bride. He is merely the servant of a few million of us who have employed him to help us get rid of the booze business. The Episcopals, Catholics, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, etc., who constitute the Anti-Saloon league—
they are the "boss" of this job, not Mc-Bride.

Say, you splendid paper to help us get a clean, decent government and a loyal, law abiding citizenship. You are wasting good energy when you attack a man of McBride's integrity.

H. C. NEWTON, M. D.

EVERY MAN TO HIS OPINION.

Mount Morris, Ill., Nov. 20.—McBride is hired by the prohibitionists to see that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution is protected against the destructive agents of a bunch that would destroy the government for their own ends. The Tribune included. You people have always been disgustingly well,
and the good people of this section say,
"Vote against anyone THE TRIBUNE advocates and you will be right." So if you favor the new constitution of the state of Illinois you can expect the people out here to be on the other side of the question.

We have watched McBride through all the fights that he has been in. In this case against all the liquor cliques and the subsidized newspapers and we are still of the opinion that he has done more good than THE TRIBUNE has.

We are certainly getting disgusted with the stuff that you print about the liquor traffic, for we find that the facts are not as you state them or else have paid and government statistics prove that some one conspires them and only the W. G. N. is right. As we sit in the office and think of the families that we attend, we can think of scores that are enjoying the benefits of prohibition out here.

R. O. BROWN, M. D.

STILL HE COMPLAINED HE DIDN'T GET A FAIR SHOWING.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 20.—Thousands of your readers wonder why one F.
Scott McBride should be permitted to monopolize practically the entire "Voice of the People" column while the advocate to submit to the rules and confine themselves to two or three hundred words. And our wonder ends in amazement when, in addition to the granting of unlimited space to such fac-tious McBride, the editor of the Tribune editorial space in answering a big's ravings. There is no difference between F.
Scott McBride of the twentieth century and Cotton Mather of the seventeenth century. Both disarmed the

LOONEY AND AIDS ARE INDICTED AT ROCK ISLAND, ILL.

BY WALTER RODERICK.

Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Where's Looney now? "Is the paramount question in Rock Island as the grand jury, under the direction of Attorney General Brundage, has begun turning out the first list of indictments against the members of the vice ring responsible for seven murders in the last three months.

The prediction is that before the inquiry is through, John Looney, until his recent flight the most feared man in Rock Island county, will stand accused of nearly every crime in the statutes. His name heads a list of seven charged with conspiracy to commit murder in an indictment returned before Circuit Judge N. A. Larson today.

Louis Ortel Sought.

The second name is that of Louis Ortel, Looney's first lieutenant and recent overlord of Rock Island's underworld. Ortel, too, has fled. While Deputy sheriffs were searching for him, Ortel, from another state, is said to have been in telephonic communication with friends, trying to sound them out on the advisability of his return and the possibility of arranging bonds. Next in importance among those hit is Lawrence M. Pedigo, one of Looney's closest friends, now in the county jail without bonds on a charge of having murdered "Bill" Gabel. It was Pedigo who led to an upper floor of the Sheraton hotel and opened fire from a window on the crowd below at the time Looney's son, John Connor Looney, was killed in a street battle in Market square.

"Small Fry" Indicted.

The others named in the indictment are the "small fry" in the Looney

INDICTED

camp, hangers on in the underworld, gunmen and police characters, all, they are "Gint" Hippert, "Dirty Neck" K. y, one Cooney, whose first name is unknown, and "John Doe," described as a porter in Ortel's saloon.

The indictment came as a surprise in that it has nothing to do with either the Gabel or Looney murders, neither of which has yet reached the grand jury, but with a plot engineered by Looney to kill Dan Drost, a one time editor of his newspaper, the Rock Island News. The evidence in this plot was unearthed by the attorney general's chief investigator, E. S. Mosher, who appeared as the first witness before the grand jury today.

Drost Served Year in Jail.

Drost was left in charge of the News by Looney when he left Rock Island a few years ago and went to his ranch in New Mexico. When the federal authorities got after the paper Drost served a year in jail. It was at that time the paper was barred from the mails. Looney had promised to square things with Drost, but failed to keep his word and the result was that Drost was one of his most bitter enemies when the editor returned to Rock Island. Drost knew too much about Looney, and the plot, it was alleged, was hatched to put him out of the way. But something went wrong and Drost was warned in time.

A second indictment was returned charging Fred Sinclair, a former printer in the Looney plant, with receiving stolen goods. But the surface has only been scratched as yet and before the inquiry is through it will lead directly to Rock Island's city hall and involve at least two former officials there.

Chicago Girl in Case.

A second raid by police on the Looney home brought to light many letters and documents not discovered in the first raid. There was also found correspondence which had passed between John Connor Looney and Miss Hazel Schadel, a telephone operator, who formerly lived in Davenport, but who now resides in Chicago. Miss Schadel was rushed here from Chicago late last night and is being held in seclusion. Attorney General Brundage announced tonight it had not been decided whether she will be used as a grand jury witness.

BUILD AS VICE KING LEADER. Jake Pruitt, colored, said by the police to be an agent of a colored vice ring, was arrested yesterday. He was charged on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Francis Pruitt, 14. Judge Morgan continued the case until today.

HARDING TURKEY MAY BE SUBJECT OF MOTOR RECORD

"Fattened on chocolate and petted until almost spoiled, Supreme III., a 41 pound Illinois turkey, the gift of the Harding Girls' Club of Morris & Co. to President and Mrs. Harding, is unsuspectingly awaiting arrival of noon, Monday, Nov. 27, when he will board a motor truck bound for the White House.

The club sent its first turkey to the President when he was visiting the Canal Zone. Supreme I. traveled via Pullman to New Orleans, thence to Colon aboard ship. Last year Supreme II. flew to the capital by air mail, protected by sweaters, aviator's helmet, and goggles.

Supreme III. will journey in a packing house truck especially prepared and furnished by the General Motors company.

A Subscriber's Idea: The Encyclopaedia Britannica in a unique suede binding

LIMITED TO 50 SETS

ONE of our subscribers was impressed with the fact that The Encyclopaedia Britannica, besides being the most useful of books, was also a superb example of the printer's art. He decided he wanted a binding that would be beautiful in itself and at the same time increase the utility of the books.

In order to carry out this idea he asked us to bind his set in a soft suede leather—similar to that used in high-grade gloves. He was delighted with the result. The suede binding is flexible but strong, beautiful but serviceable, and luxurious without being ostentatious. Best of all, these books lie flat in their case—no book ought to stand upright.

Thousands of illustrations

We thought the idea would interest others, and in a short time we had sold thousands of sets bound in this way. But 32 volumes, each of a thousand pages, with fine hand-tooling on beautiful leather, and with thousands of illustrations, cannot be bound over night. It takes many weeks of careful workmanship. For Christmas this year we have had 50 sets prepared and no more can now be manufactured until long after Christmas.

If you would like to examine a set we should be glad to have you call at our stores, 736 S. Michigan Avenue, and 104 S. Clark Street. If you desire, we could send you one volume, but it would be better, if possible, to see the complete set. We advise you, however, that we are able to supply only 50 sets in this style, and these are likely to be soon exhausted.

The price of the set, considering the number and size and contents of the volumes, and the beauty of the binding, is less than that of any other set of books sold in America to-day, and you can extend your payments over a year and a half if you desire.

Mahogany bookcase free

The picture gives some idea of how the set will look in your home. It cannot give any idea of the richness and quiet elegance of the binding. These books will add beauty and distinction to any library or living-room. They are attractive to the eye and pleasing to the touch. You enjoy taking up one of these volumes to read, and yet it is a pleasure merely to observe their exquisite binding against the background of their deep mahogany case, itself a decorative article of furniture with a shelf for each volume. This case, by the way, goes with each set and is included in the price.

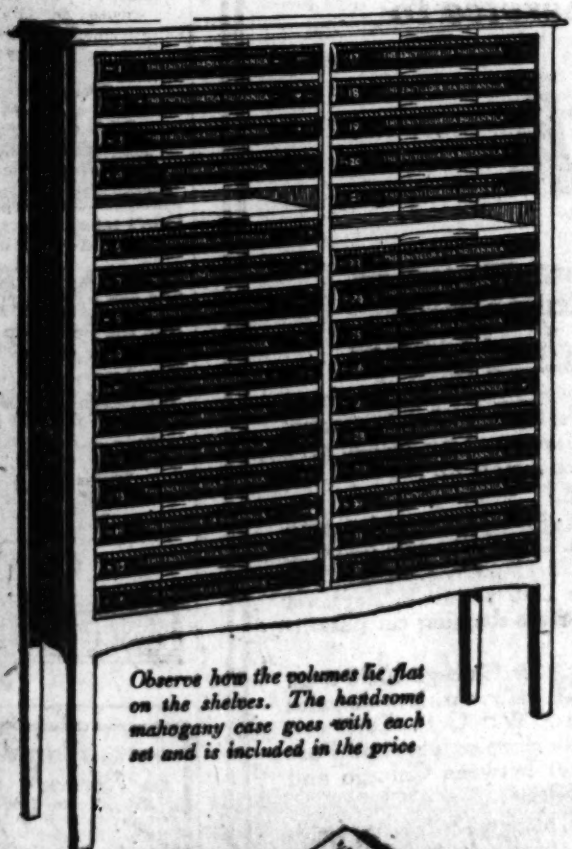

The Encyclopaedia Britannica is unique in that no other work attempts to give all general knowledge.

The suede binding is unique in that no other book is bound in this way.

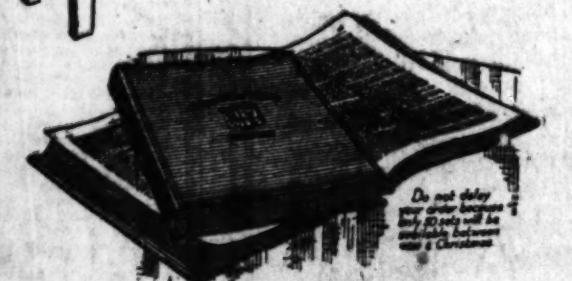

The price is unique for it is lower in proportion to cost, usefulness and beauty than that of any other work sold to-day.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica is the only work that covers the whole world to the present. All the unexampled events that have happened, all the wonderful new ideas and inventions, all the swift progress that has made the last ten years unique, are in the Britannica. The war, too, and its results are told in full and for the first time.

Do not put off the matter of ordering a set, because we can bind only 50 sets before Christmas.

Observe how the volumes lie flat on the shelves. The handsome mahogany case goes with each set and is included in the price.

JOBLESS MARCH AS POLICE ARMY GUARDS LONDON

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 22.—(By Tribune wireless.)—Thanks to the intervention of moderate Labor members of parliament, the unemployed demonstration passed off today without any serious disorder. The unemployed did not insist on seeing Prime Minister Bonar

Law, but instead sent a delegation to meet the ministers of labor and health.

However they declare they must see the prime minister before the provincial delegations leave London.

The greatest precautions are being taken by the government, which apparently is misled by ridiculous stories attributing the movement to Moscow and to plots for a revolution. The men who marched through London were not communists, but just men out of jobs, who want work and who believe that they are not employed because of what they call the bungling policy of the government.

Whitehall was practically closed to traffic all day today and thick lines of police at each and scrutinized every one who entered. The great wooden gates at the end of Downing street were closed and there was a big force of police inside, while the government offices were filled with police in reserve. Troops also were said to be in readiness at their barracks.

Police Close Big Area

A police cordon was drawn around the government district for a mile radius. Just outside the cordon, a procession was formed on the Thames embankment which was fed by smaller processions from various parts of London. All sorts of banners, red and other colors, were carried. Some were inscribed, "We want work," some had more revolutionary sentiments, while others read "We are not revolutionary. All we want is jobs."

There were perhaps 20,000 in the procession, mostly young men, and evidently, from their orderly marching and discipline, former soldiers. Many men still wore scraps of their uniforms. The leader, Hal Hannington, who is said to be a former officer, conferred with the police chief and agreed to march the men through Hyde park by a route outside the police cordon.

Labor Party Man Stops Row

All credit for the avoidance of trouble is given to George Lansbury, a Labor member of parliament and former editor of the Daily Herald, a Socialist organ. Mr. Lansbury obtained from Mr. Bonar Law a statement that he refused to receive the unemployed not because of any hostility to the unemployed, with whom he was in the deepest sympathy, but because he insisted on the constitutional methods of the government. He said that each minister must perform his own job and the prime minister would not intervene until the other ministers had talked. This was opposite to Mr. Lloyd George's attitude, who did everything himself.

A delegation of fifty was received by the ministers of labor and health. The meeting was private, but it is said the delegation simply put forward a claim to see the prime minister himself and refused to define their demands to his ministers. The Labor party proposed to bring up the question of unemployment immediately in the house of commons tomorrow.

School Children Urged to Give for Aid of Poor

This is to be "Give day" in the Chicago city schools, according to an appeal issued by Mrs. George A. MacCorkle, head of the committee of the Chicago Women's club responsible for the School Children's Aid society. She urged that every child give 5 or 10 cents to provide necessities for poor children. She said that not a cent of the fund will be used for expenses.

LOWDEN SCORES NATION'S POLICY OF ISOLATION

Scoring America's policy of isolation as impracticable, denouncing the diplomatic service of this country as the poorest in the world and declaring that it is impossible for Germany to pay the huge war indemnity demanded of her, Ex-Gov. Frank O. Lowden last night addressed a meeting of University of Chicago students at the Quadrangle club on the Midway campus.

"America is the only country in which all European nations have confidence," he said. "And the presence of United States troops in Germany is the one stabilizing influence in Central Europe. The withdrawal of our soldiers from the Rhine, as desirable as this action may be, would leave that section of Europe in a state of political chaos, the outcome of which is fearful to contemplate."

No Nation Isolated, He Says.

"I want to tell you no matter how beautiful the idea of our isolation is, it is not a fact," Mr. Lowden said. "There is no nation in the world which enjoys isolation today, or which will enjoy it in the future."

To maintain a policy of complete isolation, Ex-Gov. Lowden declared, would mean that we would be forced to allow 40 per cent of our wheat fields revert to prairie and half of our cotton lands go to waste. Such a policy would revolutionize the whole system of American commerce and industry, he held, because without the maintenance of relations with European countries, the United States would find no market for its surplus agricultural and industrial produce.

Economic Situation Unstable.

"The economic situation of the continent is now very unstable," he continued. "No country has an income which balances its expenditures, and to expect Germany to pay the huge war indemnity originally demanded of her is being recognized by most political economists as ridiculous. Nor can Russia be expected, in her present condition, to return the goods and property of other nations confiscated during the revolution. That also is beginning to be seen."

900 YOUNGSTERS SEE CIRCUS; PAY IN ADVERTISING

Nine hundred youngsters, ranging in age from 6 to 12 years, and representing many nationalities, attended the Haggenbeck-Wallace circus at the Coliseum yesterday as guests of Viola Laurina, 9, 909 South State street, and "Collie" Lapham, 7, 1234 Wabash avenue.

The two children arranged the event with the management by promising a sensational return in advertising. They agreed to see that the boys and girls made a house to house canvass of the neighborhoods in which they reside, telling householders what they thought of the circus.

Viola and "Collie" are pupils in the Haven school, 1458 Wabash avenue, which frequently is dubbed "The Melting Pot."

BOOST GEN. LANG FOR CHIEF CLERK OF BONUS BOARD

BY MORROW KRUM.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—Selection of the chief clerk of the service recognition board, who will be executive officer in paying the soldiers' bonus, will be one of the first duties of that board after the Cook county official returns are received in Springfield and the approval of the board issue is officially proclaimed.

Competent authority has it that Brig. Gen. Edward J. Lang, former colonel of the old 4th infantry, I. N. G., is in line for this post.

In Charge of Records.

Gen. Lang is now in charge of the division of war service records in the adjutant general's office under authorization of the legislative act of 1919, which provided that a history of Illinois soldiers in the world war be compiled. He has been in constant touch with the war department in handling

BRIG. GEN. EDWARD J. LANG.

service records of more than 200,000 Illinois soldiers which are now on file in the war record bureau.

There have been rumors that the chief clerkship, which pays $3,600, might go to a politician within the state administration organization. The name of Senator John A. Wheeler of Springfield has been mentioned. Senator Wheeler has the rank of lieutenant colonel, and was Gov. Small's senate leader in 1921. He was defeated for re-nomination and also when he ran as an independent administration candidate for reelection on Nov. 7.

Legion Opposes Politics in Job.

American Legion representatives, it is understood, will insist that there be no politics played in organizing the bonus machinery. The Legion will make no recommendations for chief clerk, according to William R. McCauley, who is in Springfield as a personal representative of State Commander Charles W. Schick, but appears to be confident that a service man and not a politician will be chosen for the job.

The appropriation of $2,500 for operating the bonus organization until the legislature convenes is not effective until the official result on the bonus vote is declared. Until then no debt can be incurred legally by the board. This accounts for delay in naming the chief clerk and other appointees and the printing of the bonus application blanks.

Fined $5 Because She Struck Man and Drove On

A fine of $5 and costs was imposed yesterday upon Mrs. Edith Munding, owner of a riding academy at 5217 Broadway, charged with striking and injuring Dr. D. J. Normoyle, 1346 Hood avenue, and driving away in her automobile without offering aid.

COP WEDS GIRL HE SAVED FROM DEATH IN LAKE

From the lake to the altar, tells the romance of Patrolman Arthur Johnson of the Evanston police force.

Two years ago, Johnson was in the coast guard service at Evanston. One afternoon, while patrolling the beach, he heard cries for help and found a young girl struggling in the lake.

He carried her to shore, to discover that she was Miss Elizabeth Borland, 1809 Benson avenue, Evanston. Yesterday they were married secretly in Chicago.

Johnson attracted attention last March by the arrest of Louis F. Swift Jr., son of the packer, on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

ALLEGED CROOK HIT BY AUTO IN FLIGHT FROM COP

Running in an effort to escape arrest, Sam Shapiro, 1301 South Central Park avenue, alleged pickpocket, attempted to dodge a street car, and fell beneath the wheels of an automobile at Lincoln and Belmont avenues, sustaining a broken leg and numerous cuts and bruises.

Shapiro, with Harry Fish, also said by police to be a pickpocket, of the same address, had been spotted by Sergeant Burns and O'Brien, who were riding on a Lincoln avenue car. Shapiro was taken to Alexian Brothers' hospital and Fish to the bureau.

FINE $100 FOR REAL BEER.

Albert Weber, 7000 Emerald avenue, was fined $100 and placed on probation for a year yesterday by Judge Ellis, on charge of selling "near beer," which wasn't.

Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

You Can Sleep

Longer now, if you wish

Quaker Oats now comes in two styles, identical in quality and flavor.

Our experts have perfected Instant Quaker Oats—the quickest cooking oats in the world. It cooks in from 3 to 5 minutes, and it cooks to perfection.

Now your oat dish can be ready, if you wish, before the eggs or coffee.

Now two great supremacies

Now Quaker Oats in two ways excel any other oats in existence. Long ago their flavor won the world. It has made Quaker Oats the dominant brand wherever oats lovers live.

Quaker is flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flaky oats. We get but ten pounds from a bushel, but those ten pounds are the finest oats that people ever get.

Now comes quick cooking. Instant Quaker is flaked from the same queen grains. But the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and are partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small, thin flakes cook quickly. If you want exquisite flavor you must get Quaker Oats. If you want five-minute cooking you must get them. Get either or both, as you like. But get Quaker always if you want this dish delightful.

STOP BROADWAY SEWER WORK COUNCIL

Faherty Received from Alder

Michael J. Faherty, president of local improvement board of local improvement, received a letter from Alder J. J. White, chairman of the board, advising him that the board had voted to stop Broadway sewer work.

No Help Offered.

The second joint committee refused help Mr. Faherty out of the street improvement fund.

In dealing with the sewer improvement, the board of local improvement, including "amounts to about $800,000."

At the council session of the Faherty lobby, which hand in person, the council resolution of Ald. White directing that Mr. J. J. White be removed from the Broadway sewer work.

After Faherty had completed consideration of the matter, the council met at the hands of the and Wallace met in a room. The following action was taken.

Faherty—"I'll trim you if it is the last act of my life."

Wallace—"How much to spend, $100,000?"

Faherty—"I'll spend as much as I want, if you don't fight me."

Wallace—"Good. If you win, I'll sure win. If you lose, I'll have a hard time of it."

"GLORIANO" QUARTER. Four alleged members of the gang, arrested recently in connection with the kidnapping and robbery of a taxicab, were dismissed from the city council.

STOP BROADWAY SEWER WORK, IS COUNCIL ORDER

Faherty Receives No Aid
from Aldermen.

Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, was rebuffed yesterday in his plans to expend millions in taxpayers' money. The first came when the city council, in the face of a lobby conducted by Faherty's friends, unanimously directed him not to begin work on the $2,500,000 Broadway sewer system which he has announced he will build at once despite protests signed by 75 per cent of affected property owners. The contract for the sewer is already let by Mr. Faherty to the White Construction company, of which Michael White (Mr. Faherty's pal) is president.

No Help Offered Him.

The second jolt came when the finance committee refused last night to help Mr. Faherty out of his difficulties in connection with the South Water street improvement. The committee refused to deal with the question of public benefits laid before it by Faherty and shrewdly the whole question back to the board of local improvements.

In dealing with the question the aldermen passed a resolution that "$2,500,000 having been voted by the people for the improvement, the committee believes that it is bound by the express will of the people to limit the city's share of the expenses of the project to that amount." Faherty's "preliminary expenses" in connection with the improvement, including "expert fees" amount to about $500,000.

Approve Wallace Resolution.

At the council session, in the face of the Faherty lobby, with "Mike" on hand in person, the council approved the resolution of Ald. Thomas O. Wallace directing that Mr. Faherty "take no steps toward the construction of the Broadway sewer system until the streets and alleys committee has completed consideration of this matter."

After Faherty had received the wallop at the hands of the aldermen, he and Wallace met in a council ante-room. The following snappy repartee took place.

Faherty—"I'll trim you for aldermen if it is the last act of my life."

Wallace—"How much are you going to spend, $100,000?"

Faherty—"I'll spend every cent that is necessary. I wouldn't even lay off you, if you quit fighting the Broadway sewer."

Wallace—"Good. If you are against me, I'll have a hard time coming back to the city council."

"GLORIANO" QUARTET FREED.

Four alleged members of the "Gloriano" gang, arrested recently in connection with the kidnapping and robbery of five women at a tavern, were dismissed from custody yesterday by Judge Richardson in Sheffield avenue court.

YOUNGEST STEAMSHIP COMPANY MANAGER VISITOR IN CHICAGO

To T. Komatsu, 35 year old manager of the Toya Kisen Oriental Steamship company, who arrived at the Blackstone hotel yesterday morning, is said to be long the distinction of being the youngest steamship executive in the world. He heads an organization including three distinct fleets, which aggregate more than 250,000 tons.

Komatsu first came to the United States when 12 years old. Graduating from Monmouth, Ill. high school, he continued through Monmouth college, whence he went to Harvard and obtained A. B. and M. A. degrees. During the disarmament conference in Washington he was secretary and technical advisor to Admiral Kato, Japanese delegate.

FIGHT AGAINST PACKING MERGER BY LA FOLLETTE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—A fight against the proposed Armour-Morris meat packing merger was launched in the senate today by Senator La Follette (Wis.).

Mr. La Follette introduced a resolution calling upon the secretary of agriculture to report to the senate all information concerning the merger and what action is contemplated by his department in reference to it.

The resolution was laid on the table at the suggestion of Senator La Follette. He will make a speech on it probably tomorrow.

Armour Meets Bankers.

New York, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—J. Ogden Armour, who has applied to the department of agriculture and to the attorney general's department, for permission to undertake the merging of Armour & Co. with Morris & Co., another of the "big five" packers, is in New York to get in touch with the bankers who will finance the deal should permission to make it be given. Thus far there has been no formal discussion of the financial phases of the consolidation, but Mr. Armour is reported to have in mind a definite financial plan, and some of the bankers are familiar with the plans he has in mind. The present plans do not involve any other concern than Armour & Co. and Morris. It had been reported that Wilson & Co. might be included in the merger.

13 TESTIFY IN N.J. DOUBLE MURDER; PIG WOMAN NEXT

Somerville, N. J., Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The first two important phases of the Hall-Mills murder case were practically finished tonight when the grand jury which has been listening to evidence since Monday adjourned after deciding not to convene until next Monday.

Special Prosecutor Wilbur A. Mott had shown how the bodies were found. He had established to the best of his ability—barring the testimony of two additional witnesses—what he considers the motive. There remained tonight only the testimony of the two motive witnesses and the story of the crime, the eyewitness story to be told by Mrs. Jane Gibson, the hard working farm woman, who said she saw the shooting. Only thirteen witnesses were called today, but all of them were of the first importance. Mrs. Russell was among the first called. She told reporters after her twenty minutes inside the room that she had "told the same story I told you."

If that is true, Mrs. Russell told the grand jury that Mrs. Gibson could not have seen the shooting because Mrs. Gibson was talking to Mrs. Russell on the latter's porch at the time. George Sipe, another pig raiser, told that he called at Mrs. Russell's shack the night of Sept. 14, to see her about a horse and had corroboration to the extent that Theodore Knothe, a New Brunswick man, saw him do it. Knothe went into the jury room immediately after Sipe and, according to authoritative stories, both said that Mrs. Russell was not at home when they called a little before ten. According to Mrs. Russell she was home from 9:45 until 11, and with Mrs. Gibson all that time. Charlotte Mills, daughter of the slain woman, was in the jury room half an hour. It was learned from official sources that most of the thirty minutes were devoted to an explanation of the manner in which her mother's private letters came to be sold to a newspaper.

Tender Gums Become Jim

Gum soreness and bleeding usually end in one week. Kloria destroys germ cause. Free trial proves it.

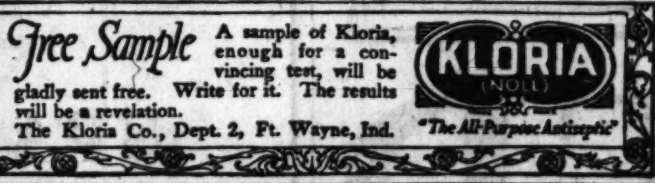

NOTHING like Kloria has ever been known before for sore, bleeding gums, pyorrhea, etc. Usually, in one week, all gum soreness and bleeding disappear, and soon the shrunken gums tighten around the teeth again. Doubt if you must, but try it.

This is the new and wonderful antiseptic discovered in the world war, which, by scientific test, is over 40 times more germ-destroying than carbolic acid. This great germicidal power is what makes it so effective.

Yet Kloria doesn't burn or irritate, is soothing, pleasant, and absolutely safe because not poisonous. As a healing agent, it knows no equal.

Apply it, without fear, to any skin disease such as eczema or barber's itch, and watch the trouble fade away. Mark how it soothes soreness, itching and irritation.

Note how promptly it destroys the pus infection of boils, carbuncles and sores; how it heals cuts and burns, often in one-fourth the usual time. For dandruff, simply wet the scalp a few times with Kloria, and see how quickly the itching and dandruff disappear, yet it is harmless as water to the hair. As a mouth-wash, it really destroys the acid-forming bacteria, thus preventing tooth-decay. As a gargle, there is nothing like it for sore throat. Harmless, yet more effective than any poisonous antiseptic for personal hygiene. Dissolve a few Kloria Tablets in water, and instantly you have, at a cost of a few cents, a large bottle of liquid antiseptic which is clean, colorless, stainless and virtually odorless. All druggists. 50c. Money refunded if not satisfied.

EXPECT PARDON TO KEEP STEVENS OUT OF JOLIET

Paroles Looked For by Noted Criminals.

Paroles for some of Chicago's best known criminal ex-citizens now journeying in Joliet, and a complete pardon for Walter Stevens, who never has seen the inside of the Joliet penitentiary except as a visitor, despite his 200 arrests and final conviction for shooting a policeman, which has been affirmed by the United States Supreme court, were subjects of deep meditation yesterday at Joliet by Gov. Small's board of pardons and parole.

The board already has considered Stevens' pardon, and have reported their conclusions to Gov. Small. He is waiting to give the Chicago crime commission opportunity to be heard before announcing his decision.

Sends for Chamberlin.
Two of the governor's emissaries recently came to Chicago to ask Henry Barrett Chamberlin why the crime commission protested against the governor's giving a pardon to Stevens, as a political reward, before he began serving his sentence. It was understood they also endeavored to justify Gov. Small's granting the pardon on the ground that Stevens had a perfect alibi, even though the state and national supreme courts both held to the contrary.

Despite the reports of Mr. Chamberlin's objections brought back to him, the governor has sent for him to come to Springfield early next week, which Mr. Chamberlin said last night he would do. Following this conference the governor will act on the fate of Stevens. Stevens, meanwhile, is at liberty, the mandate not having yet been forwarded from Washington, D. C.

Well Awaiting Parole.
On the honor farm at the penitentiary, Joseph Well Esq., respondent in a newly grown Van Dyke heard that made him look "The Yellow Kid" of other days who "conned" more than a million dollars from persons who believed him to be the big business man he appeared, yesterday was awaiting favorable action on his application for parole. His associates of the "palmy days," Frederick Buckmaster, was also being considered by the parole body.

Others whose applications were being passed upon were Martin Sicha, familiarly known to criminals and police as "Big Six," "Silent" Edward Smith, and the Washington Park bank robbers.

TRADE CONGRESS FOR CONFERENCE ON ALLIED DEBTS

Notables at Banquet
Closing Sessions.

With a banquet in honor of foreign diplomats in attendance, the southern commercial congress, in session at the Congress hotel since Monday, last night closed its fifteenth annual convention.

Resolutions affecting the government's foreign and domestic policies were adopted at the afternoon session. One of these urged an international conference of banking interests and government authorities to consider settlement of allied debts and German reparations by granting a moratorium and providing an amortization plan. An international tariff conference, for "nonpartisan revision" of present schedules, also was advocated.

Urges Lake-Sea Route.
A feature of the day's proceedings was an address by H. C. Gardner, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association. He said "every foot of American soil" would be benefited by the proposed waterway.

Mr. Gardner said the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway would not interfere with plans for improvement of the Mississippi.

"With both in operation," he said, "two-way traffic would be available, the river being favored in winter, and the shorter St. Lawrence route to Europe during summer months for all points north of Vicksburg."

A plea for a canal 215 miles long across the northern part of Florida, linking the Gulf of Mexico with the Atlantic ocean, was made by J. C. Ruge, president of the North Florida Chamber of Commerce.

Favors Sale to Ford.
W. T. McCown of Tennessee advocated sale of Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford. He said the cost of nitrate, under Ford operation of the plant, would be reduced two-thirds.

With Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, presiding, last night's banquet speakers included Sen. Don Federico Alfonso Peset, ambassador for Peru; Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie of Nebraska; Gov. Albert E. Ritchie of Maryland; and Gov. E. Lee Trinkle of Virginia.

With Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, presiding, the speakers included Sen. Don Federico Alfonso Peset, ambassador for Peru; Brig. Gen. George Van Horne Mosely.

Alleged Bandits Repudiate Confession, but Are Held

Although they repudiated their signed confessions of the robbery of Emil Janssch, 1111 North Sacramento boulevard, by whom they were identified, as having been wrung from them by beatings at the hands of the police, Thomas Donato, 719 North Sacramento to boulevard, and Roy Henry, 1147 Lawrence avenue, were held to the grand jury yesterday by Judge McKinley in the Boys' court.

MILLIONAIRE, 72, CAVE MAN, WIFE NO. 5 DECLARES

Caveman-like love, which, despite his 72 years and five marital ventures, caused B. E. Tilden, millionaire, to brand her with a lighted cigar, kick and threaten to kill her, caused Mrs. Mary C. Tilden, 6808 Wayne avenue, to seek separate maintenance, according to her testimony yesterday before Judge George F. Rush.

Although his income is estimated at more than $50,000 yearly, Tilden, 36 years old, to maintain himself on $20 weekly. Because she clipped an interest coupon from a bond to keep their child in school Tilden threatened her with arrest.

SEEK MYSTERY ASSAILANT WHO SHOT DRUGGIST

Police were searching the south side last night for the man who entered the drug store of Dr. Samuel J. Litz at 5183 South Halsted street about 7 o'clock and shot and seriously wounded the proprietor. Dr. Litz is in a critical condition in the Englewood Union hospital.

According to the police, his assailant entered through a rear door, and, without a word, commenced firing at the druggist, who fell with a bullet in his abdomen. Adding to the mystery of the affair is the fact that no attempt at robbery was made, police say, and that Dr. Litz declared he had never seen the man before.

What I Have Learned in 47 Years Practice

I HAVE been watching the results of constipation for 47 years, since I began the practice of medicine back in 1875. I am now 83 years old, and though from time to time the medical profession makes some wonderfully interesting experiments and tests the fundamentals of causes and relief in this particular ailment are unchanged.

But the people take greater interest today in their health, in diet, exercise and the drinking of water. Constipation, however, will occur from time to time no matter how one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. I believe in getting as close to nature as possible, hence my remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It is made of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. Children will not willingly take bitter things. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written me to that effect.

Over 10 million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are now sold every year, and it is the most widely bought family laxative in the world. I say family laxative because all in the family can use it with safety. It is mild enough for the infant in arms, effective in the most chronic constipation of an adult. The formula is on every package.

Recently there has been a new wave of drastic physics, Calomel, a mineral that salivates and loosens teeth, has been revived; salt waters and powders that draw needed constituents from the blood; coal tar disguised in candy form that causes skin eruptions. In a practice of 47 years I have never seen any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without griping, and without shock to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It lowers your strength 28 per cent, hardens the arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope but go to a druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a generous-size bottle. Take a teaspoonful that night and by morning you will be well. The cost is only about a cent a dose. Use Syrup Pepsin for yourself and members of the family in constipation, biliousness, sour and crampy stomach, piles, indigestion, loss of appetite or sleep, and to break up fevers and colds. Always have a bottle in the house, and observe these three rules of health: Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.

HANDICAPPED

IN the race of life—the nerve-racking contest for success—the man WITH BAD TEETH rides UNDER A HANDICAP, the extent of which he seldom realizes.

It is THE MAN WITH A SMILE who forges ahead as he covers the distance from day to day. Why? Because there is VITALITY back of the smile. He has MENTAL EQUIPOISE which fits him to take advantage of EVERY opportunity.

The man WITH BAD TEETH does NOT smile. In the first place, he fears to betray his dental defect. In the next place, he has BAD DIGESTION, and bad digestion is the SWORN ENEMY OF A SMILE.

The Smiling User of Kolynos

The user of Kolynos smiles BECAUSE HIS MOUTH FEELS CLEAN, and also BECAUSE HE IS NOT AFRAID TO SHOW HIS TEETH.

He has been told JUST WHAT KOLYNOS DOES, most likely by a dentist or physician, or a scrupulously clean and hygienic acquaintance who is also WINNING OUT in the race.

He knows that the dangerous bacteria in the mouth—DISEASE GERMS—are very apt to run riot if they are not kept under control, and that KOLYNOS DOES CONTROL THEM.

The Kolynos Company
New Haven Conn.
U.S.A.

He has learned that Kolynos brings to the teeth their NATURAL LUSTRE and preserves them in that condition, because it dissolves the film and hygienically cleanses their ENTIRE environment.

We have on file in our New Haven laboratories personal applications from over 47,000 American Dentists and 74,000 American Physicians for Kolynos Dental Cream, to distribute among their patients.

Any physician or dentist will tell you that decayed teeth are strong predisposing causes of many serious diseases, both in children and adults.

Kolynos Prevents Decay

While a GRITTY dentifrice—one which may whiten your teeth in a surprisingly short time—will scour away and destroy the enamel, leaving the dentine exposed to immediate decay, KOLYNOS PRESERVES THE ENAMEL.

Kolynos contains NO GRIT. Certain of the mouth bacteria PRODUCE THE ACID which, in turn, PRODUCES TOOTH DECAY. Kolynos DESTROYS, RENDERS INACTIVE and WASHES AWAY millions of these germs—the greatest service a dentifrice can perform.

WIN OUT! DO NOT NEGLECT OR TRIFLE WITH YOUR TEETH! USE KOLYNOS!

Sell to Industrial Buyers through The Chicago Tribune

The 429,584 purchasers of electricity for industrial power are divided among the various zones as indicated by the above chart, according to The Electrical World.

THE CHICAGO TERRITORY

THERE IS a tendency in the East to regard "The Corn Belt" as a distinctively agricultural zone. Yet Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin, the five states known as The Chicago Territory, produce 22% of American manufactures.

Those who sell to factories, mills, power plants, public utilities, foundries, machine shops, etc., find here a market with a tremendous appetite for advertised quality merchandise.

FURTHERMORE, they find in The Chicago Tribune a medium which can sell Square D switches as well as flat-irons, castings as well as hairpins, trucks as well as limousines.

Every morning The Chicago Tribune is read by the great majority of big business men not only in Chicago but in Kalamazoo, Oshkosh, Ottumwa, Peoria, Kokomo, and other cities of Zone 7.

It costs them $15 a year to read The Chicago Tribune—which is probably more than they pay for anything else they read. They buy it and read it in addition to their local papers largely as a business proposition. It contains the news of world events, of politics, of finance, of markets on which they must be authoritatively informed.

In its influence with this type of reader The Tribune is unique. As evidence—witness the fact that makers of office equipment spend four times as much for advertising in The Chicago Tribune as they do for space in the other five Chicago newspapers combined. Advertising agencies buy space in The Chicago Tribune to present their cases to the chief executives of big manufacturing concerns. Surely they exercise their best expert judgment in spending their own money. And they spend several times as much in The Tribune as in all the other Chicago papers combined.

Bankers, wholesalers, manufacturers and executives in every line of business read The Chicago Tribune throughout the entire Chicago Territory. Let your message speak to them from its newsy, inviting pages at the opening of the business day.

The World's Greatest Newspaper

An unusual book called "The W G N" has just been published. It deals particularly with The Tribune, but is in effect a handbook of newspaper administration. 304 pages—100 illustrations—how news is gathered—how agency news becomes newspaper—how the advertisements are handled every phase of the making of The Tribune is described in detail—Editorial—Advertising—Circulation—Mechanical. "The W G N" is on sale at these bookstores: McClurg, Carson, Poiré, Scott & Co., Butcher, Kroch, Chandler, Cowles-McGraw. It will be mailed postpaid on receipt of $2.00 by the Business Survey, 1711 Tribune Building, Chicago.

GRADS "PEP UP" MAROON ELEVEN AT ANNUAL RALLY

BY TED ISERMAN.

Maroon alumni set the pepper pot
at Saturday's big game with the Wisconsin team. The annual autumn football reunion
last night at the University club.
Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg, beloved Old Man of the Midway, and his retinue of 1922 football talents were the guests of honor.
The annual football dinner is held each year preceding the final grid tilt of the season.

Coach Stagg, principal speaker of the evening, expressed no assurance that his team can overcome the Badgers. If the game is dropped by the Maroons, he declared, it will not be a big score. President Judson also spoke, emphasizing the importance of athletics in the school, and complimenting the Old Man on the efficiency with which he has handled Maroon sports during the latter's three-year reign at the university.

Russell, Norgren Speak.
N. Norgren and Pete Russell, the former one of Stagg's assistants and the latter, like Norgren, a famous Maroon grid captain of the last decade, also spoke. The Chicago players were introduced and greeted by a prolonged ovation from the 500 old grads and reminders of old time games and prelusive grid experiences were invigorated.

Maroon scrimmages was cut short yesterday afternoon, the team and coaches adjoining to the University club for the feed. The workout was not only short but light, most of the time being spent in defensive practice against the Wisconsin passers, which were tried, for the most part unsuccessfully, by the freshmen. A string of the upper crust of the Maroon squad ran signals until about 6 o'clock.

Lampe, Dickson Back.
This lineup included Elmer Lampe and Campbell Dickson, both of whom may be able to get into the game Saturday according to the Midway trainers. Joe Pondick may also be able to see action against the Cardinals in the first of the five-game series which Chicago has contracted for with Wisconsin.

BADGERS ON EDGE

Madison, Wis., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Coach Richards allowed no letup in hard work for the Wisconsin squad today. Signal drill for new plays formed the first part of the practice, which was followed by a stiff drill in the scrums, in which the players were put into action. Both Harris and Gibson performed at right half, and, though Gibson will start the game, Harris will play as action before the final signal.

All Badgermen are on edge for the Maroon contest, and "Beat Chicago" is the slogan. Students are preparing to leave Madison en masse, every one of the 10,000 tickets allotted to Wisconsin having been sold two weeks ago. Although good gives Stagg's men the edge, loyal Badgers cannot see it that way, and are determined that their team is going to upset Chicago for a championship tie, feeling that two in first place is sufficient.

CARDS AND BEARS IN WRANGLE OVER TURKEY DAY TILT

Although Chris O'Brien, manager of the Chicago Cardinals, local professional football team, claims he has an agreement for his team to play the Bears on Thanksgiving day, Dutch Sternman, one of the managers of the Bears, last night asserted the game was cancelled last June.
"The game was cancelled because we could not agree on the park," Stern-man said last night. "Followers of our team wanted to play on the north side, while O'Brien was insistent about the Sox park. This happened last June, and we then drew a line through this game."
At the time we notified O'Brien and Chris Stark, secretary and treasurer of the league, Stark has copies of this letter and so have we. One was sent to O'Brien. As a result of our failure to agree on a park we have scheduled the Toledo club for Thanksgiving day."

The matter is now in the hands of President Carr and Secretary Stark.

CITY PREP SWIM MEET ON DEC. 16

With football rapidly sliding into the dispast, Chicago high schools already are bending efforts to make a creditable showing in the eighth annual indoor swimming championship, which is coming big on the prep aquatic calendar.

The meet will be divided into two classes, seniors and juniors, with the former competing in eleven events and the latter in ten. Preliminaries are scheduled for the Friday at the University of Chicago, Dec. 9, and the finals at the University of Chicago the following week, Dec. 16. Entries close Dec. 7 with Director of Atletics E. C. Delaporta.

Morgan Park Battles N. W. Academy Teams

Northern Military and Naval academy gridlers will face Morgan Park Military academy in the annual bromine battle at the Lake Geneva school on Saturday. Indications point to a hard battle, as the teams are evenly matched. The honors in preceding years of the annual set are even, and both coaches have been pointing their teams for this contest. Alumni of the Northern academy will celebrate anniversary and Saturday, according to the annual homecoming program.

WHEN LOYALTY HURTS

COACH FIELDING H. YOST of Michigan nursed a body
that was black and blue
after the Michigan-Ohio game, due to the "expressions" of loyalty from his players, according to a story revealed by Yost's admirers
here last night.

The desire of the Wolverines to win that particular game was so intense that during the period of practice, Yost received no less than a thousand slaps on the back or pokes in the ribs from his players.
"It got to be a fright," Yost is quoted. "Every time one of those kids wanted to convince me of his sincerity to defeat Ohio, I got a wallop. My back was black and blue for a week after it."

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Harry Kipke of Michigan and Earl Martineau of Minnesota, two of the leading backs in the middle west, will match their ability on Saturday when Wolverines and Gophers meet at Minneapolis in one of the most important gridiron struggles in the middle west.
It will be an important contest for both elevens. Michigan must win to share championship honors with one of two other elevens which may complete their schedules without defeat.
Minnesota will try to be the victor to offset prestige lost by defeats at the hands of Wisconsin and Iowa. Rooters
of both elevens will look to Kipke and Martineau to do the lion's share of the ground gaining.

Both Sides Are Versatile.
There is a great similarity in their play. Each is a triple threat man in that he can kick, run or pass. Each will do all the punting for his team
and each will be sent around the ends
of two other elevens which may complete their schedules without defeat.
Minnesota will try to be the victor to
offset prestige lost by defeats at the hands of Wisconsin and Iowa. Rooters
of both elevens will look to Kipke and Martineau to do the lion's share of the
ground gaining.

Both are great open field runners and fast. Against Iowa, Martineau reversed the field a couple of times and has a good straight arm. He picks openings nicely and is the sort of back who will leave his interference to dart through the line if there is a hole large enough to make a yard or two.

Kipke is the same type of artist. He may not be quite as fast, but his sidestep dodge is a little better than his Gopher rival. In making his sidestep, Kipke uses the stiff arm to advantage.
Like Martineau, he picks hole nicely and is clever in worming his way into the open to receive forward passes. He is the best punter in the conference.

SECOND STRING MEN AT LAFAYETTE COLLEGE BANISHED AS PROS

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 22.—Five members of the Lafayette college football squad, all second string men, have been banned from further football activities. Dr. J. B. Sutherland, head coach announced today, because of rumors of alleged professionalism.
The men, it is said, went to Pittsburgh, Pa., last Sunday and participated in a game against the Avoca Buffaloes in violation of the rules of the college.

The players are Eddie Kearney of Pittsburg, Pa., half back; Frank Hilton of Huron, O., quarter back; James Duffy of Clinton, O., and John Duffy of Trenton, N. J., guards.

Dr. Sutherland has laid the matter before the faculty committee, which will conduct an investigation. The men, it is said, claimed they received no compensation, playing for sport's sake.

AT THE FOOTBALL CAMPS

AT WEST POINT.
WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 22.— [Special.]—Army's final home workout came this afternoon.
Tomorrow morning the "A" squad, which comprises varsity and reserve players, will leave for Philadelphia, where the cadets are to line up against the Navy on Saturday in the annual service gridiron battle.
Everything worked smoothly today.
The big team went through a forty-five minute drill, but it was light work.

AT YALE.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—
The Yale eleven ran through thirty minutes of scrimmage this afternoon, virtually completing the season. It was the only actual football on the card for the regular season, the last for some of the irregulars. What is most important of all, it marked the definite end of the season which will face Harvard in the bowl Saturday before two teams crippled at Princeton. Jack Diller and Caleb Eddy. Diller did not report today. Eddy limped badly. The Yale eleven in 1922. Dick Luman, senior captain two years ago and stellar frontman for the Yale eleven last fall, announced that he was out today.

AT HARVARD.
Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—
The Harvard coaches put their football team through another heavy drill today, virtually completing the season. It was the only

AT MICHIGAN.
Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—
One of the hardest workouts of the year was given Michigan's eleven in their final practice as they closed this fall. The back field men were drilled in running back punts and open field running, while the line men received a lesson in blocking and tackling. The last hour was spent in a series of plays against the Gophers, with emphasis on the forward pass.

AT NOTRE DAME.
Notre Dame, Ind., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Coach Knicker, Manager Leman, and thirty-three players will leave Thursday evening for the Notre Dame game. The game will be played at Notre Dame in the game which precedes the season's winter at Notre Dame Thanksgiving day. The program of the squad will be announced following practice Thursday, but it will not include Eastern Lab. or beach. Capt. Carberry will be in shape to play part of the game.

AT COLUMBIA.
Columbia, S. C., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Columbia's unscathed on grid machine
today held one of the hardest work-outs in preparation for the homecoming game with De Paul Saturday.

WHEATON MEETS ELGIN IN GAME OF "THE SEVENS"

Elgin, Ill., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Elgin High, convener of Ansonia Conn., in an inter-sectional game here
last Saturday, will play the undefeated Wheaton team, champion of the Little Seven, at Maroon field on Thanksgiving day. Coach Church of Elgin is drilling his men hard in an effort to down the Little Seven champs, while Coach Weldon is working his men with a view of keeping the 1922 Wheaton state champs. Over 300 Wheaton fans have made reservations to attend the game. Elgin is a member of the Big Seven conference of northern Illinois.

SUBURBAN GRID TITLE RACE TO REMAIN TIE

BY GEORGE BUCKLEY.
The Chicago Suburban High School conference has officially closed its football season, with Evanston and Oak Park holding equal claims to the grid championship. Following a meeting of suburban principals Tuesday, John T. Riddell, coach at Evanston, announced yesterday that the game proposed for Saturday to settle supremacy would not be played.
Evanston and Oak Park completed their schedules undefeated, and played a 7 to 7 tie early in the season. The adverse decision of the board caused considerable disappointment
among prep followers, as it precludes any possibility of the city and suburban champions meeting.

Marshall-Bowen Hang Fire.
The suggested playoff of Bowen and Marshall for the division B title of the Chicago Public School Athletic league remains uncertain. According to Manager McNellis, Coach Twomey of Bowen has issued a flat deft to Marshall for a game to be played on the field selected by the latter school, but Marshall has not responded. During the haggling Coach Twomey has kept his charges "mowing wood."

In the meantime the publicity glare is widening and the ticket sale increasing for the titular combat of Hyde Park and Senn for division A honors
at White Sox park Saturday. Hyde Park, survivor of the south side race, and Senn, standard bearer of the north section, are daily putting in long sessions with the pigskin to remain in the "pink."

Due to greater experience, and demonstrated ability to deliver and hold in the pinches, Hyde Park, coached by "Butch" Scanlon, former Purdue mentor, is fancied as favorite by many, although Hyde Park has lost to one league foe and Senn to none. Indications point to one of the biggest crowds that ever attended a high school game.

Catholic League Title Game.
With the championship of the Catholic league at stake, De La Salle and St. Rita, boasting perfect records, are bending every effort to iron out the kinks developed in the semi-final round skirmishes last week. The elevens, which appear about equal in strength, will battle Saturday on St.
Rita's field, 63d and Oakley.

This contest, incidentally, will pit former teammates against each other in the role of coaches. Norman Barry, who made a brilliant record as half back at Notre Dame, is handling De La Salle, and Tom Shaugnessy, a stellar
N. D. lineman, is in charge at St.
Rita.

AT MINNESOTA.
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 22.— [Special.]—The Gophers' defense showed up unusually well in tonight's practice against the scrubs, who used nothing but Michigan plays for more than an hour. The scrubs managed to get away with several long passes, but as a general rule
they were grounded or intercepted.

Freddie Oster, full back, who has
been ill for a week, was on the field
in civilian clothes. He says he will get into uniform tomorrow, which means that he will be available for Saturday's game, although Pederson
is sure to get the call at the start.

After the dummy scrimmage, the Gophers ran through some of their pet
plays in a long signal drill. The squad's work was ragged, but the boys had a lot of fun and fight.

ASK $25 FOR TICKETS TO ARMY-NAVY GAME; PRICE MAY GO TO $200

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 22.— [Special.]—Tickets for the Army-Navy football classic on Franklin field next Saturday may be purchased for $25 and up, it was learned today after a survey of cigar stores, hotel lobbies and other haunts of the ticket scalper.
The scalpers indicated that if they get seats for the north and south stands, the most advantageous, the price might go as high as $200.
Many army and navy officers already are here, conversing at the leading hotels, indicating that a large number of the military contingent will be here by Friday night. The Army football squad will arrive tomorrow; the Navy Friday afternoon.

lot of fun and fight.

Freddie Oster, full back, who has
been ill for a week, was on the field
in civilian clothes. He says he will
get into uniform tomorrow, which
means that he will be available for Saturday's game, although Pederson
is sure to get the call at the start.

After the dummy scrimmage, the Gophers ran through some of their pet
plays in a long signal drill. The squad's
work was ragged, but the boys had a
lot of fun and fight.

ILLINI WORK HARD TO FOIL OHIO STRATEGY

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Bob Zupke's Illini were drilled long and hard on Buckeye strategems tonight on Illinois field. News that Hoge Workman was back at his old job as quarter back was not received with any particular enthusiasm on Illinois field, where his successful pass for a touchdown in the final play of the championship battle two years ago is still fresh.

Although Zupke is working with the most likely reserves all the time
it seems more and more probable that there will be any change in the makeup of the team. The best hope is that either Woodward or Robison will start at right half. Rube Clark sticks at quarter, with Coughlin and Dawson in reserve.

The Ohio-Illinois ticket sale is so brisk that a capacity crowd of 20,000 is predicted.

OHIO IN LAST HARD WORK

Columbus, O., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Coach Wilcox put his Ohio State gridders through the last hard scrimmage of the season and for over an hour schooled them in breaking up a forward pass drive.

Tonight at 7 o'clock a procession of students bearing 600 torches marched two miles from the Athletic house to the Union station to pay their last respects to the Buckeyes of 1922. The 100 pieces band blared out fighting songs. Win or lose, the State spirit hasn't suffered very much.

Friday night two special trains filled with 800 rooters will leave for Urbana.
At least 200 are leaving in machines tonight and tomorrow morning.

RECORD CROWD TO SEE PURDUE-INDIANA TILT

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— Purdue's homecoming game with Indiana Saturday is expected to break attendance records on Star-field. The seating capacity has been increased to accommodate 10,000
spectators, and more than this number will seek admission.

The Boilermakers
had another hard workout.
Coach Phelan
drilling his men
in offensive play,
using the scrubs
and freshmen for opposition. Wellman, full back on the varsity, was hurt in scrimmage and was carried from the field with one rib broken.

Homecoming program includes many features. In the morning there will be ceremonies in connection with the laying of the cornerstone of the new student union building, and then the alumni will be taken in motor trucks
to the farm which George Ade, 1887, and David H. Ross, 1893, have donated to Purdue as a site for a stadium. Gov.
Warren T. McCray, president
Edward C. Elliott and Charles W.
Morey, representing the general alumi association, will speak at the cornerstone laying.

INDIANA IS READY.

Bloomington, Ind., Nov. 22.—[Special.]— More than 1,500 tickets have been sold to the Purdue game at Lafayette Saturday. On the other hand, sixty left of the allotment sent here.
From present indications, at least 300 more will be needed. The first and second varsity teams had the field all to themselves today, and occupied the time in running signals.

PERSHING TO SEE NEBRASKA GAME

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 22.—Gen. John J. Pershing will occupy a special box at the Nebraska-Notre Dame football game here Thanksgiving day. It is announced. Gen. Pershing will be in Lincoln on that day for a visit with his son, Warren, and his two sisters.

When You Apply Stacomb

No matter how contrary
your hair may have been it will stay combed as you comb
it with Stacomb. As you comb it in the morning, so it stays all day.

Stacomb, after a Shampoo, restores the natural oils. Then comb your hair as easily and as neatly as before.

These beneficial natural oils are absorbed by the hair and scalp. Stacomb does not

CHILD'S COLD

"California Fig Syrup"

Hurry! Move Little Bowels with

What ever you give your child to relieve a bad cold, croup, whooping cough, be sure to first open the little one's bowels with "California Fig Syrup" to get rid of the poisons and congestion. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works the constipation poison, how life and waste right out.

Now if you call your family physician he will praise you for having given "California Fig Syrup" as the laxative because it never fails, never cramps or overacts, and even sick children love its pleasant taste. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has all ages printed on bottle. Mothers! all ages printed on bottle. Mothers! you must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Doris Blake Says

TODAY IS LUCKY FOR THE SOBER MINDED.

Mercury and Saturn rule this day, according to astrology, an excellent way for the thoughtful, sober, ponderous mind, one with a disposition to routine habit and method, for fruits of this meticulous care should be unfolded. The forecast for those whose birth date it is for the coming year is a happy one as relates to both domestic and business life. You are positive, fearless, and masterful by nature. You were born to command and you generally do. You are impatient of dictation and interference. You mind out your words when you wish to have some one out of your night and way. Forcible language will acquire an interference in your work with your ideas of him. Fear never enters your soul. You are apt to be tyrannical and devoid of feeling. You are a strict disciplinarian, determined to enforce obedience. You expect and love approval, become morose and moody if it is not forthcoming, although you are not inclined to generosity in this regard yourself. You do not attract people in a confidential way because your manner makes you unapproachable. Children born on this day are likely to be more successful than loved.

George, You Surprise Us.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am the unknown 17 year old young man who goes out with Margie. I have the right to kiss other girls at parties, haven't I? She kissed other fellows."

Ah, so you are the young kissing bug, are you, George? Where do you get this right to kiss girls at parties? "Can't you control your emotions, George? Aren't you afraid the girls will be calling you mushy and gooey and sentimental?"

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The assistant military attaché of the British embassy and Mrs. C. E. D. Bridge were hosts at a dance this evening at the Columbia Country club when their guests numbered about 200. A buffet supper was served. A number of dinner parties were given preceding the dance, among the hosts being the commander of the British embassy and Mrs. Henry G. Chilton, the secretary and Mrs. R. L. Spencer, Col. and Mrs. Morris Ernst Locke and Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Emile Montgomery. The charge d'affaires of Hungary, Mr. John Feleny, was host at luncheon yesterday at the Shoreham, having a company of ten, including Countess Szechenyi, wife of the minister of Hungary, and Mme. Prochnik, wife of the charge d'affaires of Austria. The new attaché of the legation of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, Slobodan Godjevac, arrived last evening. The newly appointed second counselor of the Italian embassy and honor counselor, Sig. Guiseppe Catalani, will arrive tomorrow and join Signora Catalani who came last week and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Henry P. Dimock. Sig. and Signora Catalani made a short visit in Washington last week with Mrs. Dimock on their way to Venezuela, where Sig. Catalani served as minister of Italy.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY

HENRIETTA: I DON'T BELIEVE the moderate use of cosmetic powder is harmful to the skin. In fact, it furnishes protection to the skin against the ravages of wind and sun. Good powder will not clog the pores, and certainly is a pretty thing to behold. If the face is washed thoroughly at night, blackheads will not form.

RUTH: SORRY, BUT I CANNOT recommend any proprietary articles in my column; consequently, cannot name any soap or powder or cream. There are good brands of all these articles on the market. Find the one which best agrees with your skin, and stick to it.

GRAINS TUMBLE TO BIG DECLINE; BUYING IS WEAK

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Weakness in the stock market, with rumors of riots in Manchester, England, and a giving out of buying power, brought about a collapse in grain values, following a strong bulge early in the week, with a loss of 1 1/2% to 2% on wheat, 1 1/2% on corn, 1 1/2% on oats, and 1 1/2% on rye. May wheat sold up to $1.13, after a moderate break early on unresponsive Liverpool cables, but the buying was not as good as a class as of late. The pit element had a tip that wheat was due for a good advance during the day and was in a position to sell out early, only to be opened to sell out later, when the break in stocks commenced to have an effect and found support lacking.

President Harding's message was taken in some quarters as forecasting government assistance in finding a market for some of the surplus farm products, but fell flat as an influence.

Conflicting reports regarding the demand for cash corn had an influence on prices. Early Omaha reported a less consistent demand from the west, and later the seaboard claimed 300,000 to 400,000 bushels for export. At the same time there were sales of 1,000,000 to 1,200,000 bushels for export, which was said to represent grain for which there was no foreign demand. Futures had a range of 1/4% to 1/2% at the bottom.

There was free buying of rye early by those with seaboard connections, which was construed as against export business, but when wheat weakened rye followed and closed easy. No. 2 on spot sold at 1 1/2% over December. The two northern markets received 275,000 bushels.

Forwarders were dull the greater part of the day. Shorts bought January and closed it 1/4% higher, while deferred deliveries were unchanged to 1/4% lower and the west of St. Louis lost 1/4% to 1/2%.

The New York Times

New York, Nov. 22.—[Special.]—The really significant movement in the market today was the renewed advance in foreign exchange; but Wall Street's attention was absorbed in the returning weakness of the stock market. Some of the day's declines were considerable, ranging from 1 to 3 points in various active shares, both railway and industrial. For this weakness there was no obvious cause. The market had closed with fairly substantial recovery from the day's lowest prices. Some foreign bonds went higher, but as a rule they dropped back fractionally from the high point of recovery reached on Tuesday. Inasmuch as the high prices of that day, in the French government bonds especially, represented advances running as far as 4 or 5 1/2 points within less than a fortnight today's halt was natural.

The day's foreign exchange market was more interesting. In view of the French recovery of 1 1/2 points between Nov. 18 and Nov. 20, there had been some disposition to consider Tuesday's reaction as the beginning of another fall, and the same feeling had existed regarding sterling and Italian lire. All three of the exchanges, however, advanced again emphatically today.

Wall Street has learned many things in the last few years that in foreign exchange neither the scope of a "bear account" nor the effect on prices of its attempt to extricate itself when the market turns against it can be judged by the casual "bear movements" on the stock exchange. Such a turn in the market for sterling or francs or lire not only causes a great rush of purely speculative "covering purchases," but it usually brings into the market a great mass of legitimate buying orders, whose execution had been deferred with an eye to possibly still lower rates.

Romania Wants Delay in Paying Debt to U. S.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The American debt funding commission was advised today by the Romanian financial mission that Romania is unable at present to set a date when it may begin the payment of interest on its $41,000,000 war debt to this country, although it is the intention of the Romanian government to meet the debt at such time as it should become possible to do so. It was said that negotiations regarding the Romanian consolidated loan, which is to have priority in payment on Romanian revenues, would be conducted between Romania and the state department so as to reconcile the Romanian program with the conditions upon which the American advances were made during the war.
